NOT A MOURNER ATTENDED FUNERAL

The Remains of Mrs. Lichtenstein and Daughter Were Laid to Rest Yesterday

WITHOUT ANY RELIGIOUS RITES

The Only Persons Present at Interment Were the Undertaker and Assistants.

AN UNUSUALLY SAD CASE

The funeral of Mrs. Lichtenstein and her little daughter Mary took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the undertaking rooms of J. D. West.

It had been arranged to bury the remains some time during the afternoon, as it was impossible to keep them longer. Rev. Weary, of St. Stephen's church, was to conduct the services, but the undertaker waited until 4 o'clock in the hope that some of the relatives would appear to attend the funeral. None came, however, and the bodies were taken to Spring Grove cemetery attended only by Undertaker West and his assistants, and they were laid to rest much after the manner in vogue in heathen countries.

There have been so many stories concerning the origin of the fire and the condition of the bodies when found, and they have been of so varied a character that the authorities have determined as soon as Justice Rose returns to the city to make a thorough investigation of the case, and if there is any foundation whatever for the claim that the fire was of an incendiary nature, no stone will be left unturned to bring out the facts.

RETAIL CLERKS

Will Entertain their Friends in a Royal Manner at Rock Springs This Evening.

The retail clerks and their many friends will dance this evening at Rock Springs and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. A large number of invitations have been issued and all who attend will have a pleasant time, as the retail clerks have proven themselves first-class entertainers.

The season at Rock Springs is rapidly drawing to a close, and a large crowd will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to spend an evening at the park with the retail clerks.

WANTS JUDGMENT.

James McCaffrey Has Entered an Action Against Thomas McKenna.

Lisbon, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—James McCaffrey, of Leetonia, wants judgment against Thomas McKenna for $124.

The amount is due on a promissory note given at Leetonia in 1893, which is secured by a mortgage on lot 354.

ANDREW CARNEGIE

Has Consented to Pay for the New Presbyterian Church at Leetonia.

Through the efforts of Rev. D. A.

Collins, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Leetonia, Andrew Carnegie will donate the money to pay for the new church which is now in course of construction.

He will also purchase for them a good pipe organ. It will be remembered that the old church was burned down some months ago.

DISPOSED OF BY SQUIRE McLANE YESTERDAY.

Frank Harvey Lost His Case And John Shaffer Secured Judgment by Default.

Two cases were disposed of in the court of Justice McLane yesterday.

Frank Harvey had sued Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt for $10, a balance due for a lady's tailor-made suit, and when the evidence was all in judgment was rendered for defendant.

Mrs. Hoyt had been suddenly called away, and found it necessary to procure a new suit; Harvey had one that had been made for another party and had been paid $10 on the same, but was compelled to keep it, as the first

De Vern Coburn called at the mayor's office yesterday and paid an old fine against his friend, John Allison. John is now square with the authorities.

HIS SORE TOE.

Constable Miller has been suffering for several days with a very sore foot, a corn on the bottom of the member having bealed.

Miller is much improved today, and will have entirely recovered in a few days.

MISS MARSHALL

Will Arrive Here Friday And Take Up the Deaconess Work in the First M. E. Church.

Miss Marshall will arrive in the city Friday from Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home at Cincinnati, and will at once take up the deaconess work in the First M. E. church.

She intends to make her future home here and her work will be that of visitation, looking after the sick and the poor and afflicted of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city.

WILL RETURN.

Rev. Clark Crawford Will Leave Next Week to Attend the Conference at Youngstown.

Rev. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, will leave next week to attend the conference which will be held at Youngstown.

The congregation of the First M. E. church has asked that Rev. Crawford be returned to this city, and there is no doubt but that the request will be granted.

POLLOCK-DAVIDSON.

Well Known People of the City Were United in Marriage Yesterday Afternoon.

John Pollock and Mrs. Emma Davidson were married yesterday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock by Rev. Edwin Weary and left on the afternoon train for a trip to Detroit.

They have many friends who will wish them much happiness.

THE FIRST PERSON

To Drive Over the New Street Were J. W. Gipner and N. G. Macrum.

J. W. Gipner and N. G. Macrum last evening drove along Princeton avenue to Jennings avenue and thence to the Calcutta road.

They were the first persons to use the new thoroughfare, which will soon take the place of the Calcutta road in that part of the city.

—Rev. O. C. Crawford and wife, of Allegheny, visited the family of A. G. Minehart, Franklin street, this week. The reverend gentleman will sail on November 20 for his future field of labor in foreign missionary work.

A STORY ABOUT ZACH ROBINSON

Now Engaged In the Hazardous Task of Painting the Immense Standpipe

AT THE OHIO PENITENTIARY

Refuses to Permit Any of the Other Painters to Do the Work Because

THEY ARE ALL MARRIED MEN

The following from the Ohio State Journal in regard to Zach Robinson, who killed his wife at the Hotel Grand, in this city, a few years ago, will be of interest to many people here:

The standpipe at the penitentiary, which is used to give pressure to the water supply there, is being painted by Zacharia T. Robinson, a life man from Columbiana county. The standpipe is 150 feet high and the work of painting it is a most hazardous one.

Robinson refused to allow any of the other painters to work on the standpipe in painting the top and highest portions, and gave as a reason that they were all young men, some of whom were married, and that all would be released some time, and that in the work they would likely lose their lives. Every day for the past week Robinson can be seen on the top of the standpipe working away, apparently as self-possessed as if he were painting a garden fence and looking at that height like a small boy.

The standpipe is being painted red on top and the body black, and the work is being done in strips, starting at the top and working down. A system of ropes and pulleys is being used to suspend Robinson over the side as he works.

He was first sentenced to be electrocuted for murder and occupied the annex for several months, but was finally granted a new trial, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

AN EAST END MAN IS TAKING PHOTOS

Of the People That Are Stealing
His Apples and Says He Proposes

TO ISSUE A LARGE POSTER

Filled With Wood Cuts Showing
People In the Act of Stealing the Fruit.

NOW HAS MANY PICTURES

A gentleman who resides in the East End has been having a great deal of trouble this year with parties who have been stealing apples from his orchard, but he has hit upon a novel plan for stopping the practice, and it is safe to say he will not be bothered next year if he carries out his present intentions.

The gentleman is an amateur photographer of some ability and he has spent much of his time during the summer taking the pictures of the parties who have been stealing apples from him.

He has now in his possession quite a large collection of pictures and says that as soon as the apple season is over he intends to have wood cuts made and to issue a large poster, so that all who run may read.

The pictures were taken while the people were in the act of stealing the apples, and the gentleman says many people will be surprised when the poster appears.

"MONKEY AND PARROT."

This Was the Kind of a Time Had at the Mayor's Office Yesterday.

Seated at the mayor's office yesterday afternoon, awaiting the arrival of City Clerk Hanley, we noted a rather fine looking woman enter city hall and inquire for his honor. She was directed to the inner sanctuary, where the mayor is wont to dispense justice, entered, and closed the door upon the outside world. Comparative quietness reigned for a brief space of time, and then a sweet soprano voice was raised in accusation, resulting in Mayor Davidson vacating his office, remarking to the pencil shaver and an appreciative audience that "that damsel makes me weary."

Marshal Thompson stepped into the breach; and that's where he made a mistake, as he was accused of securing money from Mr. Dusenberry and failing to make due acknowledgement or just return of the aforesaid filthy lucre. The marshal attempted an explanation, but his powers of persuasion were unequal to the occasion, and he finally gave up in despair, remarking:

"You must be under the influence of tanglefoot to make accusations of dishonesty on the part of the mayor and myself."

And then a cyclone of language, exceedingly voluminous and diffusive, permeated the surrounding atmosphere, amid the electric current of which the marshal fled for his life.

The only remaining victim in sight was an innocent and unsophisticated journalist, connected with a down town paper, and the madame combed his ambrosial locks to the queen's taste, telling him that "reporters were always sticking their nasty noses in the business of other people."

The journalist eloped instantaneously, and the mayor made his return on special business connected with an important case, when the angry woman accused him of separating husband and wife, he disgustingly replying:

"Madame, I desire to treat all women courteously; but you make me very tired. You would not act in this unseemly manner if you were sober, and my advice is that you will go home and sober up. You accuse me of separating you from your husband, and state that I assigned three rooms in your home domicile to him. Why, madame, I couldn't separate a hemlock plank with a cross-cut, home-made saw, let alone separate a loving, contented and happy husband and wife. Pardon me, madame, while I weep. My sympathetic heart has been lacerated by the very intimation that you could, for the fraction of a moment, deem me guilty of such cold-blooded cruelty."

As the mayor wept copiously, the heart of the incensed and angry and excited woman was apparently touched by the pathetic scene and sight, and she forgave his honor, fully and freely, making but a single claim upon him, and that was that he would use his utmost efforts to keep the incident out of the papers.

STILL TALKING.

East Liverpool and Sebring May Play Ball, But It is Very Doubtful.

The East Liverpool and Sebring base ball clubs have not yet succeeded in coming to an agreement in regard to playing a series of games for $100 a side, and the contest thus far closely resembles a Corbett-Fitzsimmons match.

Sebring now wants Carey, Miller and Patterson. Liverpool says they can have Patterson and Miller, but not Carey.

An immense amount of wind will be wasted before this is fixed up, and at the present rate the clubs will be ready to play July 4, 1901.

The Sebring team realize that they would be defeated and for that reason are causing the delay.

LOAFERS

Have Again Taken Possession of West Market Street And Should Be Moved.

After an absence extending over a period of several weeks the gang of loafers have returned to West Market street, and seem to think they are permanent fixtures on that street.

It did not take long for the mayor to break up the gang before and it should be done again, as they are a source of annoyance to the residents and pedestrians.

Trenton Pottery Notes.
Trenton Times.

A union of the ground layers is proposed to be formed tonight at Lyceum hall, No. 409 South Broad street.

The Anchor pottery is unusually busy and has more orders on hand than can be readily filled.

Much sympathy is expressed in potting circles for Michael Collins, who is ill at St. Francis hospital. Mr. Collins is suffering from a cancer and fears are entertained for his recovery.

The fall goods of the Mercer pottery include some very artistic designs and shapes.

The uniform wage scale has ceased to become an object of heated discussion for the present, and is generally regarded as having been knocked out of Trenton for good.

The Maddock's Lambertson street pottery has a long list of orders for filling.

The pottery trade in England shows some little improvement, particularly with the American branch. The Staffordshire Sentinel reports that despite the coming presidential election the trade with this country is excellent.

AN EAST END MAN IS TAKING PHOTOS

Of the People That Are Stealing
His Apples and Says He Proposes

TO ISSUE A LARGE POSTER

People In the Act of Stealing the Fruit.

NOW HAS MANY PICTURES

A gentleman who resides in the East End has been having a great deal of trouble this year with parties who have been stealing apples from his orchard, but he has hit upon a novel plan for stopping the practice, and it is safe to say he will not be bothered next year if he carries out his present intentions.

The gentleman is an amateur photographer of some ability and he has spent much of his time during the summer taking the pictures of the parties who have been stealing apples from him.

He has now in his possession quite a large collection of pictures and says that as soon as the apple season is over he intends to have wood cuts made and to issue a large poster, so that all who run may read.

The pictures were taken while the people were in the act of stealing the apples, and the gentleman says many people will be surprised when the poster appears.

"MONKEY AND PARROT."

This Was the Kind of a Time Had at
the Mayor's Office Yesterday.

Seated at the mayor's office yesterday afternoon, awaiting the arrival of City Clerk Hanley, we noted a rather fine looking woman enter city hall and inquire for his honor. She was directed to the inner sanctuary, where the mayor is wont to dispense justice, entered, and closed the door upon the outside world. Comparative quietness reigned for a brief space of time, and then a sweet soprano voice was raised in accusation, resulting in Mayor Davidson vacating his office, remarking to the pencil shaver and an appreciative audience that "that damsel makes me weary."

Marshal Thompson stepped into the breach; and that's where he made a mistake, as he was accused of securing money from Mr. Dusenberry and failing to make due acknowledgement or just return of the aforesaid filthy lucre. The marshal attempted an explanation, but his powers of persuasion were unequal to the occasion, and he finally gave up in despair, remarking:

"You must be under the influence of tanglefoot to make accusations of dishonesty on the part of the mayor and myself."

And then a cyclone of language, exceedingly voluminous and diffusive, permeated the surrounding atmosphere, amid the electric current of which the marshal fled for his life.

The only remaining victim in sight was an innocent and unsophisticated journalist, connected with a down town paper, and the madame combed his ambrosial locks to the queen's taste, telling him that "reporters were always sticking their nasty noses in the business of other people."

The journalist eloped instantaneously, and the mayor made his return on special business connected with an important case, when the angry woman accused him of separating husband and wife, he disgustedly replying:

"Madame, I desire to treat all women courteously; but you make me very tired. You would not act in this unseemly manner if you were sober, and my advice is that you will go home and sober up. You accuse me of separating you from your husband, and state that I assigned three rooms in your home domicile to him. Why, madame, I couldn't separate a hemlock plank with a cross-cut, home-made saw, let alone separate a loving, contented and happy husband and wife. Pardon me, madame, while I weep. My sympathetic heart has been lacerated by the very intimation that you could, for the fraction of a moment, deem me guilty of such cold-blooded cruelty."

As the mayor wept copiously, the heart of the incensed and angry and excited woman was apparently touched by the pathetic scene and sight, and she forgave his honor, fully and freely, making but a single claim upon him, and that was that he would use his utmost efforts to keep the incident out of the papers.

STILL TALKING.

East Liverpool and Sebring May Play Ball, But It is Very Doubtful.

The East Liverpool and Sebring base ball clubs have not yet succeeded in coming to an agreement in regard to playing a series of games for $100 a side, and the contest thus far closely resembles a Corbett-Fitzsimmons match.

Sebring now wants Carey, Miller and Patterson. Liverpool says they can have Patterson and Miller, but not Carey.

An immense amount of wind will be wasted before this is fixed up, and at the present rate the clubs will be ready to play July 4, 1901.

The Sebring team realize that they would be defeated and for that reason are causing the delay.

LOAFERS

Have Again Taken Possession of West Market Street And Should Be Moved.

After an absence extending over a period of several weeks the gang of loafers have returned to West Market street, and seem to think they are permanent fixtures on that street.

It did not take long for the mayor to break up the gang before and it should be done again, as they are a source of annoyance to the residents and pedestrians.

Trenton Pottery Notes.
Trenton Times.

A union of the ground layers is proposed to be formed tonight at Lyceum hall, No. 409 South Broad street.

The Anchor pottery is unusually busy and has more orders on hand than can be readily filled.

Much sympathy is expressed in potting circles for Michael Collins, who is ill at St. Francis hospital. Mr. Collins is suffering from a cancer and fears are entertained for his recovery.

The fall goods of the Mercer pottery include some very artistic designs and shapes.

The uniform wage scale has ceased to become an object of heated discussion for the present, and is generally regarded as having been knocked out of Trenton for good.

The Maddock's Lamberton street pottery has a long list of orders for filling.

The pottery trade in England shows some little improvement, particularly with the American branch. The Staffordshire Sentinel reports that despite the coming presidential election the trade with this country is excellent.

The City Valuation Is at Least That Much Too High Says
a Member

OF THE EQUALIZING BOARD

State Board May Be Prevailed
Upon to Reduce It to That Extent.

TO MAKE AN INSPECTION

The decennial board of equalization is still hard at work, but the kickers are now few and far between.

The appraisers will soon begin a personal inspection of the property in the city, as it will be impossible for them to equalize some of the property without viewing it.

The board realizes that valuations in the city are altogether too high, but they can't help it. One member of the board in commenting on the matter said that at least $1,000,000 should be taken off the total valuation, but he did not know how it could be done.

It is probable strenuous efforts will be made to have the state board reduce the appraisalment in this city.

PREPARATIONS

Are Being Made to Celebrate the Harvest Home Festival at St.
John's Church.

Preparations are in progress for celebrating the harvest home festival at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church next Sunday.

The decorations will consist of flowers and fruit of the field. The festival sermons will be preached by the pastor.

On this day the regular English evening services will be resumed.

The time of Sunday school has been changed from 1:30 to 2 p. m.

Killed by the Cars.

This morning at 2 o'clock, just south of Burlington, a short distance above Martin's Ferry, a south bound freight train on the C. & P. railroad struck and instantly killed Samuel Cochran, of Martin's Ferry, a former marshal of that town.

The deceased was about 50 years of age, and is survived by Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Edward Haughton, of Martin's Ferry. The body was taken to Martin's Ferry.

The deceased was well known here.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

East Liverpool People Are Requested
to Honestly Answer
This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of East Liverpool more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

William Terrence, fireman at engine house No. 1, says: "For some time I was annoyed with symptoms of either weakened or over-excited kidneys. I had noticed more than one recommendation made by people living in East Liverpool about Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking that if the medicine performed half what it promised it might help me, I bought a box at Larkin's drug store. They cured me."

One of Moody's Jokes.

D. L. Moody was always full of fun. He saw the comic side of things, and as a boy enjoyed putting practical jokes upon any one whom he well knew. In the rear of his Uncle Samuel's retail shoe store in Boston was a cobbler's repair kit—seat, tools, awls, etc., and the seat was, as usual, a piece of leather concavely shaped downward at its center.

One day the workman on this saucer shaped seat felt it becoming uncomfortably damp, then really moist. He rose and saw a damp spot on the seat. Supposing that a few drops of water had been accidentally dropped upon the seat before he sat down to his work, he folded an old newspaper and placed it and sat comfortably down to resume his work. But the moisture seemed strangely persistent. Rising again, he found the paper becoming soaked with water, and he stood perplexed, his hammer in one hand and the soft, wet paper in the other.

Looking this way and that in his perplexity, he soon heard a half chuckle, half snicker, which could no longer be repressed, and there behind the door was the country boy, learning how to be useful in a city shoe store, as he really and rapidly did, but taking his fun as he went along. He had placed a shallow dish of water close up to the underside of the center of the leather seat, which only touched the water when the weight of the occupant was upon it, so three or four small awl holes served his purpose for that time.—Congregationalist.

Our Endurance.

During life each member of the human body produces poison to itself. When this poison accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, which always occurs unless the muscle has an interval of rest, then will come fatigue, which is only another expression for toxic infection.

If the muscle is given an interval of rest, so that the cell can give off its waste product to keep pace with the new productions, the muscle will then liberate energy for a long time. This latter condition is what we call endurance.

Like any other ponderous and intricate machine, the body requires time to get in harmonious working order. The brain, nerves, heart and skeletal muscles must be given some warning of the work they are expected to perform. Ignorance of this fact has broken down many a young man who aspired to honors on the cinder path.

The necessity of getting all the parts of the body slowly in working order is well understood by trainers and jockeys on the race track, as is evinced by the preliminary "warming up" they give their horses, although it is doubtful if the trainers could give any physiologic reason for their custom.—Popular Science.

Witchcraft.

"The sixteenth and seventeenth centuries," said John Fiske, "were the flourishing ages of the witchcraft delusion. Witchcraft, in the early ages, was considered one of the greatest of crimes, as much so as murder, robbery or any other serious offense against the law, and the belief in it was shared by the whole human race until the latter part of the seventeenth century."

"In England, in 1664, two women were tried before Sir Matthew Hale, charged with bewitching several girls and a baby, and they were put to death, for at that time the evidence seemed perfectly rational. In 1615, in Genoa, 500 people were burned to death on the charge of witchcraft. It was the proud boast of a noted executioner in northern Italy, at this time, that in 15 years he had assisted in burning 900 persons charged with sorcery. In Scotland, between 1560 and 1600, 8,000 people were put to death, an average of 200 a year. The last execution for witchcraft in England took place in 1712, in Scotland in 1722, in Germany in 1749 and in Spain in 1781."

American Steel For England.

From Philadelphia a ship has just sailed for England, with steel billets, sent to English manufacturers for making tin plates, and also with structural steel and beams to be used in building factories in Manchester and other English cities, and all of it made in Pittsburgh. This ship has a year's orders ahead for this line of business. Upon the delivery of the present cargo the English manufacturers will for the first time use American steel in making tin plates. Never did the like occur until McKinley came in.

MABEL MCKINLEY

NOW MRS. BAER

The President's Niece United to the Young Physician, With Pretty
Ceremonies, at Somerset.

Somerset, Pa., Sept. 13.—Miss Mabel McKinley, the president's niece, by ceremonies in the drawing room of the McKinley residence, in this city, became the bride of Dr. Hermanus Baer. The little ribbon girls, Miss Matilda Snyder, a niece of the bride, and Miss Lucy Scull, a niece of the groom, in advance of the wedding procession indicated the approach to the drawing room by unfolding the wide white ribbon and so signifying the approach to the foot of the stairs. The ushers, Col. W. C. Brown, William Fairman, R. C. Smith, Frank A. Munsey, Dr. Frank Hanan and John R. Leslie, had already stationed themselves at various points downstairs to assist the guests in finding their places. Following the ribbon girls was Miss Katherine Endsley, a niece of the bride, who carried the bridal bouquet. Then came Master Wilbur Schall, a nephew of the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a silver tray. Then followed the groom and best man, Lewis H. Baer, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, came after and behind her was the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was met by the groom between the drawing room door and the marriage bell in the bay window, under which Dr. Morgan was awaiting them. The father of the bride stepped a little to one side and Dr. Morgan at once began the reading of the Episcopal marriage service.

"Who gives this woman in marriage?" Abner McKinley then took the bride's right hand in his own and tenderly placed it in the right hand of the groom.

Then looking straight into the eyes of the contracting couple the minister repeated the questions of the service to each of which Dr. Baer and Miss Mabel McKinley, in a full and clear voice, responded. At the conclusion of the ceremony the groom kissed the bride and first to extend their congratulations were President and Mrs. McKinley, who embraced them. They were followed by Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, the parents of the bride.

President and Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Abner McKinley occupied chairs directly behind and within a few feet of the bridal couple. There were also seated Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Sarah Duncan, sisters of the president, and Mrs. A. J. Endsley, the grandmother of the bride. The congratulations of the guests consumed considerable time. This was followed by the wedding dinner, which was served in the marquette tent on the lawn, save those who sat down at the bride's table, which was located in the dining-room. At the bride's table were the bride and groom, President and Mrs. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Baer, parents of the groom, Governor and Mrs. William A. Stone, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor; Dr. Lewis H. Baer, the best man; Rev. Dr. Morgan, Col. W. C. Brown and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. A. J. Endsley.

Among those at the table in the marquette tent were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Crownshield, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cheney, Colonel and Mrs. Hines, Frank A. Munsey, Frederick S. Parker, Herman Aaron, Secretary G. B. Cortelyou, Dr. P. M. Rixey, General and Mrs. Ludington, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hawk, Charles R. Moore, Mrs. Madison Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Helen McKinley, Miss Sarah Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sullivan Endsley.

The musical program rendered by Toerge's orchestra, of Pittsburg, was quite elaborate.

The gowns of each lady of the wedding party and the members of the McKinley family vied with each other in elaborateness. The gown of the bride of which so much has already been written was a masterpiece of the dressmaker's art. It was simple in design, but at the same time exquisitely fitted and was the subject of much comment on the part of each member of the party. Mrs. William McKinley wore a magnificent high neck gown of white lace over pink satin with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Abner McKinley's gown was a beautiful creation of silver gray satin faced crepe de chine. Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, appeared in a pink prepe de chine gown. Miss Grace McKinley was attired in a light blue decollete, one of the most beautiful costumes seen. Mrs. Madison R. Kennedy, who is prominent in Society circles of New York and Chicago, wore an imported gown of lace over white satin. The waist was a mass of sequin pearls and as ornaments she wore a diamond necklace and pendant and a necklace of pearls. The sisters of the president, Mrs. Sarah Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley, were in black, the former's dress being of real lace. Mrs. Governor Stone was dressed in white satin and lace garnished with yellow pansies. It was a beautiful Parisian gown with short sleeves and low cut bodice. Here and there were touches of black velvet adding to the effect. Miss Rachel Aiken, of Pittsburg, wore a white silk trimmed with garlands of pink flowers. Mrs. Edward Blaine Scull, of Pittsburg, wore a light blue fancy silk gown garnished with black and pink panels of velvet. Mrs. Colonel Haines, wife of the commandant at West Point, was gowned in white satin over which was white lace. She wore diamond ornaments.

Baltimore and Ohio Statement For August Depressed That Stock—Movement of Some Others.

New York, Sept. 13.—Very little can be said of such a market as that of Wednesday beyond the chronicle of the movements of individual stocks. The most mercurial specialties, namely People's Gas, Sugar and Brooklyn Transit maintained their poor pre-eminence in the market. But the range of their fluctuations was extended to reach a point only with palpable effort. Before the market closed prices of the three had been dragged back to very near Tuesday night's level. In the railroad list there was some demand for Northern Pacific at an extreme advance of a point, apparently on the large increase in earnings reported yesterday for the first week in September. This seemed to sustain other railroad stocks, even St. Paul recovering sharply, in spite of the heavy decline in its first week in September earnings. The Baltimore & Ohio statement for August depressed that stock, owing to the large increase in the outlay for operating expenses, which served to pull down the net earnings. The anthracite coalers were heavy as the period approached for the declaration of the miners' final decision on the strike. Reading first preferred was off a point at one time and New Jersey Central two. The luminance of a strike probably has a wider influence than the special weakness in the coalers would indicate. The recent large output of coal is supposed to leave the companies in a position to stand a curtailment of production very well, but the cessation of mining with anything like unanimity in the anthracite field is bound to have far-reaching consequence in many branches of business. London bought stocks here again Wednesday and helped the opening rise, the London market being encouraged by belief in the Boer collapse and seemingly by the hope that a renewal of the South African gold supply will soon help to relieve the London money market. Notwithstanding the downward course of sterling exchange, opinions are strangely persistent in some quarters that gold will soon go out to London. Currency continues to move freely toward the south and west and the sub-treasury is taking small sums from the market with the cessation of the transfer of Pacific coast gold and the practical discontinuance of operations under the government refunding law. Local money rates are slightly firmer in tone as a consequence. Wednesday's bond market was barren of any feature. Total sales, par value, $775,000.

United States 5s registered, advanced 1/4, the refunding 2s when issued, registered, 1/4, and do. coupon 1/4 per cent in the bid price. The 3s coupons declined 1/4.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Wheat on Wednesday was firm on strong cables and smaller northwest receipts, but succumbed later to more favorable weather and large primary receipts, closing weak. October 1/2c lower. Corn closed 1/4c and oats 1/4c down. Provisions closed but little changed. The crippled wire service made all markets dull.

Roosevelt in South Dakota.

Brookings, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor Roosevelt's special train arrived here. Many receptions took place on the way and numerous speeches were made from the platform of the car and from specially arranged street stands around which the inhabitants of the towns crowded. An outdoor meeting was held in a tent near the courthouse grounds at this place. A torch-light procession escorted the governor's carriage through the streets of the city.

Sons of Veterans.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At the nineteenth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans the officers elected were: Commander-in-chief, E. A. Alexander, Reading, Pa.; senior vice commander, A. H. Rawitzer, Omaha, Neb.; junior vice commander, Charles S. Davis, Washington, D. C.; consul, Dan C. Cable, Nelsonville, O.; C. J. Post, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and James A. Adams, Atlantic City, N. J. Providence, R. I., was selected as the place of holding the next meeting.

The funniest thing in this campaign is the absolute silence of Mr. Bryan as to the things he believed of most importance four years ago.

Mr. Bryan's speeches are believed by himself to convince his hearers. The cold fact, however, is he only makes them sick.

It's a Serious
Thing

For a woman to come to that period known as change of life. It is almost always a period of suffering, and the derangement of mind and body is sometimes so great that the family life is utterly marred by the unhappy wife and mother. At such a time every woman needs just the help that is given by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It works with Nature, soothes the nerves by nourishing them, and cures diseases of the delicate organs. In brief, it makes weak women strong; sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "Before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I thought I would lose my mind. Now I can work every day and do not suffer. I recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of life. It is the best medicine I have ever found."

Every woman should send for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The City Valuation Is at Least
That Much Too High Says
a Member

OF THE EQUALIZING BOARD

State Board May Be Prevailed
Upon to Reduce It to That Extent.

TO MAKE AN INSPECTION

The decennial board of equalization is still hard at work, but the kickers are now few and far between.

The appraisers will soon begin a personal inspection of the property in the city, as it will be impossible for them to equalize some of the property without viewing it.

The board realizes that valuations in the city are altogether too high, but they can't help it. One member of the board in commenting on the matter said that at least $1,000,000 should be taken off the total valuation, but he did not know how it could be done.

It is probable strenuous efforts will be made to have the state board reduce the appraisement in this city.

PREPARATIONS

Are Being Made to Celebrate the Harvest Home Festival at St.
John's Church.

Preparations are in progress for celebrating the harvest home festival at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church next Sunday.

The decorations will consist of flowers and fruit of the field. The festival sermons will be preached by the pastor.

On this day the regular English evening services will be resumed.

The time of Sunday school has been changed from 1:30 to 2 p. m.

Killed by the Cars.

This morning at 2 o'clock, just south of Burlington, a short distance above Martin's Ferry, a south bound freight train on the C. & P. railroad struck and instantly killed Samuel Cochran, of Martin's Ferry, a former marshal of that town.

The deceased was about 50 years of age, and is survived by Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Edward Haughton, of Martin's Ferry. The body was taken to Martin's Ferry.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

to Honestly Answer
This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of East Liverpool more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

William Terrence, fireman at engine house No. 1, says: "For some time I was annoyed with symptoms of either weakened or over-excited kidneys. I had noticed more than one recommendation made by people living in East Liverpool about Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking that if the medicine performed half what it promised it might help me, I bought a box at Larkin's drug store. They cured me."

One of Moody's Jokes.
D. L. Moody was always full of fun.
He saw the comic side of things, and as a boy enjoyed putting practical jokes upon any one whom he well knew. In the rear of his Uncle Samuel's retail shoe store in Boston was a cobbler's repair kit—seat, tools, awls, etc., and the seat was, as usual, a piece of leather concavely shaped downward at its center.

One day the workman on this saucer shaped seat felt it becoming uncomfortably damp, then really moist. He rose and saw a damp spot on the seat.
Supposing that a few drops of water had been accidentally dropped upon the seat before he sat down to his work, he folded an old newspaper and placed it and sat comfortably down to resume his work. But the moisture seemed strangely persistent. Rising again, he found the paper becoming soaked with water, and he stood perplexed, his hammer in one hand and the soft, wet paper in the other.

Looking this way and that in his perplexity, he soon heard a half chuck-le, half snicker, which could no longer be repressed, and there behind the door was the country boy, learning how to be useful in a city shoe store, as he really and rapidly did, but taking his fun as he went along. He had placed a shallow dish of water close up to the underside of the center of the leather seat, which only touched the water when the weight of the occupant was upon it, so three or four small awl holes served his purpose for that time.—Congregationalist.

Our Endurance.

During life each member of the human body produces poison to itself.
When this poison accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, which always occurs unless the muscle has an interval of rest, then will come fatigue, which is only another expression for toxic infection.

If the muscle is given an interval of rest, so that the cell can give off its waste product to keep pace with the new productions, the muscle will then liberate energy for a long time. This latter condition is what we call endurance.

Like any other ponderous and intricate machine, the body requires time to get in harmonious working order. The brain, nerves, heart and skeletal muscles must be given some warning of the work they are expected to perform. Ignorance of this fact has broken down many a young man who aspired to honors on the cinder path.

The necessity of getting all the parts of the body slowly in working order is well understood by trainers and jockeys on the race track, as is evinced by the preliminary "warming up" they give their horses, although it is doubtful if the trainers could give any physiologic reason for their custom.—Popular

MABEL MCKINLEY

NOW MRS. BAER

The President's Niece United to the Young Physician, With Pretty
Ceremonies, at Somerset.

Somerset, Pa., Sept. 13.—Miss Mabel McKinley, the president's niece, by ceremonies in the drawing room of the McKinley residence, in this city, became the bride of Dr. Hermanus Baer.
The little ribbon girls, Miss Matilda
Snyder, a niece of the bride, and Miss Lucy Scull, a niece of the groom, in advance of the wedding procession indicated the approach to the drawing room by unfolding the wide white ribbon up to the foot of the stairs. The ushers, Col. W. C. Brown, William Fairman,
R. C. Smith, Frank A. Munsey, Dr.
Frank Hanan and John R. Leslie, had already stationed themselves at various points downstairs to assist the guests in finding their places. Following the ribbon girls was Miss Katherine Endsley, a niece of the bride, who carried the bridal boquet. Then came Master Wilbur Schall, a nephew of the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a silver tray. Then followed the groom and best man, Lewis H. Baer, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, came after and behind her was the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was met by the groom between the drawing room door and the marriage bell in the bay window, under which Dr. Morgan was awaiting them. The father of the bride stepped a little to one side and Dr.
Morgan at once began the reading of the Episcopal marriage service.

With a serious face and in a tone heard all through the rooms of the lower floor of the house in which the guests were standing Dr. Morgan asks:

"Who gives this woman in marriage?"
Abner McKinley then took the bride's right hand in his own and tenderly placed it in the right hand of the groom.

Then looking straight into the eyes of the contracting couple the minister repeated the questions of the service to each of which Dr. Baer and Miss Mabel McKinley, in a full and clear voice, responded. At the conclusion of the ceremony the groom kissed the bride and first to extend their congratulations were President and Mrs. McKinley, who embraced them. They were followed by Mr. and Mrs.
Abner McKinley, the parents of the bride.

President and Mrs. McKinley and Mrs.
Abner McKinley occupied chairs directly behind and within a few feet of the bride couple. There were also seated Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Sarah Duncan, sisters of the president, and Mrs. A. J. Endsley, the grandmother of the bride. The congratulations of the guests consumed considerable time. This was followed by the wedding dinner, which was served in the marquette tent on the lawn, save those who sat down at the bride's table, which was located in the dining-room. At the bride's table were the bride and groom, President and Mrs. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Baer, parents of the groom, Governor and Mrs. William A. Stone, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor; Mr. Lewis
H. Baer, the best man; Rev. Dr. Morgan, Col. W. C. Brown and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. A. J. Endsley.

Among those at the table in the marquette tent were Rear Admiral and Mrs.
Crownshield, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cheney, Colonel and Mrs. Hines, Frank A.
Munsey, Frederick S. Parker, Herman
Aaron, Secretary G. B. Cortelyou, Dr. P.

Mrs. Madison Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Helen McKinley, Miss Sarah

ley.

wore an imported gown of lace over white pearls and as ornaments she wore a diamond necklace and pendant and a necklace

Mrs. Sarah Duncan and Miss Helen Mc-Kinley, were in black, the former's dress being of real lace. Mrs. Governor Stone was dressed in white satin and lace garnished with yellow pansies. It was a beautiful Parisian gown with short sleeves and low cut bodice. Here and there were touches of black velvet adding to the effect. Miss Rachel Aiken, of Pittsburg, wore a white silk trimmed with garlands gown garnished with black and pink panels of velvet. Mrs. Colonel Haines, wife of the commandant at West Point, was gowned in white satin over which was white lace.

She wore diamond ornaments.

Baltimore and Ohio Statement For August Depressed That Stock—Movement of Some Others.

New York, Sept. 13.—Very little can be said of such a market as that of Wednesday beyond the chronicle of the movements of individual stocks. The most mercurial specialties, namely People's Gas, Sugar and Brooklyn Transit maintained their poor pre-eminence in the market. But the range of their fluctuations was extended to reach a point only with palpable effort.
Before the market closed prices of the three had been dragged back to very near Tuesday night's level. In the railroad list there was some demand for Northern Pacific at an extreme advance of a point, apparently on the large increase in earnings reported yesterday for the first week in September. This seemed to sustain other railroad stocks, even St. Paul recovering sharply, in spite of the heavy decline in its first week in September earnings. The Baltimore & Ohio statement for August depressed that stock, owing to the large increase in the outlay for operating expenses, which served to pull down the net earnings. The anthracite coalers were heavy as the period approached for the declaration of the miners' final decision on the strike. Reading first preferred was off a point at one time and New Jersey Central two. The luminence of a strike probably has a wider influence than the special weakness in the coalers would indicate. The recent large output of coal is supposed to leave the companies in a position to stand a curtailment of production very well, but the cessation of mining with anything like unanimity in the anthracite field is bound to have far-reaching consequence in many branches of business. London bought stocks here again Wednesday and helped the opening rise, the London market being encouraged by belief in the Boer collapse and seemingly by the hope that a renewal of the South African gold supply will soon help to relieve the London money market. Notwithstanding the downward course of sterling exchange, opinions are strangely persistent in some quarters that gold will soon go out to London. Currency continues to move freely toward the south and west and the sub-treasury is taking small sums from the market with the cessation of the transfer of Pacific coast gold and the practical discontinuance of operations under the government refunding law. Local money rates are slightly firmer in tone as a consequence. Wednesday's bond market was barren of any feature. Total sales, par value, $775,000.

United States 5s registered, advanced 1/4, the refunding 2s when issued, registered, 1/4, and do. coupon 1/4 per cent in the bid price. The 3s coupons declined 1/4.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Wheat on Wednesday was firm on strong cables and smaller northwest receipts, but succumbed later to more favorable weather and large primary receipts, closing weak. October 1/4c lower. Corn closed 1/4c and oats 1/4c down. Provisions closed but little changed.
The crippled wire service made all markets dull.

Roosevelt in South Dakota.

Brookings, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor
Roosevelt's special train arrived here.
Many receptions took place on the way and numerous speeches were made from the platform of the car and from specially arranged street stands around which the inhabitants of the towns crowded. An outdoor meeting was held in a tent near the courthouse grounds at this place. A torchlight procession escorted the governor's carriage through the streets of the city.

Sons of Veterans.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At the nineteenth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans the officers elected were: Commander-in-chief, E. A. Alex-

For a woman to come to that period known as change of life. It is almost always a period of suffering, and the derangement of mind and body is sometimes so great that the family life is utterly marred by the unhappy wife and needs just the help that is given by Dr.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It works with Nature, soothes the nerves by nourishing them, and cures diseases of the delicate organs. In brief, it makes weak women strong; sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "Before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I thought I would lose my mind. Now I can work every day and do not suffer. I recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of life. It is the best medicine I have ever found."

THE NEWS REVIEW

IT SHOULD BE CUT DOWN A MILLION

The City Valuation Is at Least
That Much Too High Says
a Member

OF THE EQUALIZING BOARD

State Board May Be Prevailed
Upon to Reduce It to That Extent.

The decennial board of equalization is still hard at work, but the kickers are now few and far between.

The appraisers will soon begin a personal inspection of the property in the city, as it will be impossible for them to equalize some of the property without viewing it.

The board realizes that valuations in the city are altogether too high, but they can't help it. One member of the board in commenting on the matter said that at least $1,000,000 should be taken off the total valuation, but he did not know how it could be done.

It is probable strenuous efforts will be made to have the state board reduce the appraisalment in this city.

PREPARATIONS

Are Being Made to Celebrate the Harvest Home Festival at St.
John's Church.

Preparations are in progress for celebrating the harvest home festival at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church next Sunday.

The decorations will consist of flowers and fruit of the field. The festival sermons will be preached by the pastor.

On this day the regular English evening services will be resumed.

The time of Sunday school has been changed from 1:30 to 2 p. m.

Killed by the Cars.

This morning at 2 o'clock, just south of Burlington, a short distance above Martin's Ferry, a south bound freight train on the C. & P. railroad struck and instantly killed Samuel Cochran, of Martin's Ferry, a former marshal of that town.

The deceased was about 50 years of age, and is survived by Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Edward Haughton, of Martin's Ferry. The body was taken to Martin's Ferry.

The deceased was well known here.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

to Honestly Answer
This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of East Liverpool more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

William Terrence, fireman at engine house No. 1, says: "For some time I was annoyed with symptoms of either weakened or over-excited kidneys. I had noticed more than one recommendation made by people living in East Liverpool about Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking that if the medicine performed half what it promised it might help me, I bought a box at Larkin's drug store. They cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

—Miss Myrtle Headley left yesterday for Wheeling to attend the fair.

One of Moody's Jokes.

D. L. Moody was always full of fun. He saw the comic side of things, and as a boy enjoyed putting practical jokes upon any one whom he well knew. In the rear of his Uncle Samuel's retail shoe store in Boston was a cobbler's repair kit—seat, tools, awls, etc., and the seat was, as usual, a piece of leather concavely shaped downward at its center.

One day the workman on this saucer shaped seat felt it becoming uncomfortably damp, then really moist. He rose and saw a damp spot on the seat. Supposing that a few drops of water had been accidentally dropped upon the seat before he sat down to his work, he folded an old newspaper and placed it and sat comfortably down to resume his work. But the moisture seemed strangely persistent. Rising again, he found the paper becoming soaked with water, and he stood perplexed, his hammer in one hand and the soft, wet paper in the other.

Looking this way and that in his perplexity, he soon heard a half chuckle, half snicker, which could no longer be repressed, and there behind the door was the country boy, learning how to be useful in a city shoe store, as he really and rapidly did, but taking his fun as he went along. He had placed a shallow dish of water close up to the underside of the center of the leather seat, which only touched the water when the weight of the occupant was upon it, so three or four small awl holes served his purpose for that time.—Congregationalist.

Our Endurance.

During life each member of the human body produces poison to itself. When this poison accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, which always occurs unless the muscle has an interval of rest, then will come fatigue, which is only another expression for toxic infection.

If the muscle is given an interval of rest, so that the cell can give off its waste product to keep pace with the new productions, the muscle will then liberate energy for a long time. This latter condition is what we call endurance.

Like any other ponderous and intricate machine, the body requires time to get in harmonious working order. The brain, nerves, heart and skeletal muscles must be given some warning of the work they are expected to perform. Ignorance of this fact has broken down many a young man who aspired to honors on the cinder path.

The necessity of getting all the parts of the body slowly in working order is well understood by trainers and jockeys on the race track, as is evinced by the preliminary "warming up" they give their horses, although it is doubtful if the trainers could give any physiologic reason for their custom.—Popular Science.

Witchcraft.

"The sixteenth and seventeenth centuries," said John Fiske, "were the flourishing ages of the witchcraft delusion. Witchcraft, in the early ages, was considered one of the greatest of crimes, as much so as murder, robbery or any other serious offense against the law, and the belief in it was shared by the whole human race until the latter part of the seventeenth century."

"In England, in 1664, two women were tried before Sir Matthew Hale, charged with bewitching several girls and a baby, and they were put to death, for at that time the evidence seemed perfectly rational. In 1615, in Genoa, 500 people were burned to death on the charge of witchcraft. It was the proud boast of a noted executioner in northern Italy, at this time, that in 15 years he had assisted in burning 900 persons charged with sorcery. In Scotland, between 1560 and 1600, 8,000 people were put to death, an average of 200 a year. The last execution for witchcraft in England took place in 1712, in Scotland in 1722, in Germany in 1749 and in Spain in 1781."

American Steel For England.

From Philadelphia a ship has just sailed for England, with steel billets, sent to English manufacturers for making tin plates, and also with structural steel and beams to be used in building factories in Manchester and other English cities, and all of it made in Pittsburg. This ship has a year's orders ahead for this line of business. Upon the delivery of the present cargo the English manufacturers will for the first time use American steel in making tin plates. Never did the like occur until McKinley came in.

MABEL MCKINLEY

NOW MRS. BAER

The President's Niece United to the Young Physician, With Pretty
Ceremonies, at Somerset.

Somerset, Pa., Sept. 13.—Miss Mabel McKinley, the president's niece, by ceremonies in the drawing room of the McKinley residence, in this city, became the bride of Dr. Hermanus Baer. The little ribbon girls, Miss Matilda Snyder, a niece of the bride, and Miss Lucy Scull, a niece of the groom, in advance of the wedding procession indicated the approach to the drawing room by unfolding the wide white ribbon and so stepped out on the porch at the foot of the stairs. The ushers, Col. W. C. Brown, William Fairman, R. C. Smith, Frank A. Munsey, Dr. Frank Hanan and John R. Leslie, had already stationed themselves at various points downstairs to assist the guests in finding their places. Following the ribbon girls was Miss Katherine Endsley, a niece of the bride, who carried the bridal bouquet. Then came Master Wilbur Schall, a nephew of the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a silver tray. Then followed the groom and best man, Lewis H. Baer, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, came after and behind her was the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was met by the groom between the drawing room door and the marriage bell in the bay window, under which Dr. Morgan was awaiting them. The father of the bride stepped a little to one side and Dr. Morgan at once began the reading of the Episcopal marriage service.

With a serious face and in a tone heard all through the rooms of the lower floor of the house in which the guests were standing Dr. Morgan asks:

"Who gives this woman in marriage?" Abner McKinley then took the bride's right hand in his own and tenderly placed it in the right hand of the groom.

Then looking straight into the eyes of the contracting couple the minister repeated the questions of the service to each of which Dr. Baer and Miss Mabel McKinley, in a full and clear voice, responded. At the conclusion of the ceremony the groom kissed the bride and first to extend their congratulations were President and Mrs. McKinley, who embraced them. They were followed by Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, the parents of the bride.

President and Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Abner McKinley occupied chairs directly behind and within a few feet of the bride couple. There were also seated Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Sarah Duncan, sisters of the president, and Mrs. A. J. Endsley, the grandmother of the bride. The congratulations of the guests consumed considerable time. This was followed by the wedding dinner, which was served in the marquette tent on the lawn, save those who sat down at the bride's table, which was located in the dining-room. At the bride's table were the bride and groom, President and Mrs. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Baer, parents of the groom, Governor and Mrs. William A. Stone, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor; Mr. Lewis H. Baer, the best man; Rev. Dr. Morgan, Col. W. C. Brown and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. A. J. Endsley.

Among those at the table in the marquette tent were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Crownshield, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cheney, Colonel and Mrs. Hines, Frank A. Munsey, Frederick S. Parker, Herman Aaron, Secretary G. B. Cortelyou, Dr. P. M. Rixey, General and Mrs. Ludington, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hawk, Charles R. Moore, Mrs. Madison Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Helen McKinley, Miss Sarah Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sullivan Endsley.

The musical program rendered by Toerge's orchestra, of Pittsburg, was quite elaborate.

The gowns of each lady of the wedding party and the members of the McKinley family vied with each other in elaborateness. The gown of the bride of which so much has already been written was a masterpiece of the dressmaker's art. It was simple in design, but at the same time exquisitely fitted and was the subject of much comment on the part of each member of the party. Mrs. William McKinley wore a magnificent high neck gown of white lace over pink satin with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Abner McKinley's gown was a beautiful creation of silver gray satin faced crepe de chine. Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, appeared in a pink crepe de chine gown. Miss Grace McKinley was attired in a light blue decollete, one of the most beautiful costumes seen. Mrs. Madison R. Kennedy, who is prominent in Society circles of New York and Chicago, wore an imported gown of lace over white satin. The waist was a mass of sequin pearls and as ornaments she wore a diamond necklace and pendant and a necklace of pearls. The sisters of the president, Mrs. Sarah Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley, were in black, the former's dress being of real lace. Mrs. Governor Stone was dressed in white satin and lace garnished with yellow pansies. It was a beautiful Parisian gown with short sleeves and low cut bodice. Here and there were touches of black velvet adding to the effect. Miss Rachel Aiken, of Pittsburg, wore a white silk trimmed with garlands of pink flowers. Mrs. Edward Blaine Scull, of Pittsburg, wore a light blue fancy silk gown garnished with black and pink panels of velvet. Mrs. Colonel Haines, wife of the commandant at West Point, was gowned in white satin over which was white lace. She wore diamond ornaments.

Baltimore and Ohio Statement For August Depressed That Stock—Movement of Some Others.

New York, Sept. 13.—Very little can be said of such a market as that of Wednesday beyond the chronicle of the movements of individual stocks. The most mercurial specialties, namely People's Gas, Sugar and Brooklyn Transit maintained their poor pre-eminence in the market. But the range of their fluctuations was extended to reach a point only with palpable effort. Before the market closed prices of the three had been dragged back to very near Tuesday night's level. In the railroad list there was some demand for Northern Pacific at an extreme advance of a point, apparently on the large increase in earnings reported yesterday for the first week in September. This seemed to sustain other railroad stocks, even St. Paul recovering sharply, in spite of the heavy decline in its first week in September earnings. The Baltimore & Ohio statement for August depressed that stock, owing to the large increase in the outlay for operating expenses, which served to pull down the net earnings. The anthracite coalers were heavy as the period approached for the declaration of the miners' final decision on the strike. Reading first preferred was off a point at one time and New Jersey Central two. The luminance of a strike probably has a wider influence than the special weakness in the coalers would indicate. The recent large output of coal is supposed to leave the companies in a position to stand a curtailment of production very well, but the cessation of mining with anything like unanimity in the anthracite field is bound to have far-reaching consequence in many branches of business. London bought stocks here again Wednesday and helped the opening rise, the London market being encouraged by belief in the Boer collapse and seemingly by the hope that a renewal of the South African gold supply will soon help to relieve the London money market. Notwithstanding the downward course of sterling exchange, opinions are strangely persistent in some quarters that gold will soon go out to London. Currency continues to move freely toward the south and west and the sub-treasury is taking small sums from the market with the cessation of the transfer of Pacific coast gold and the practical discontinuance of operations under the government refunding law. Local money rates are slightly firmer in tone as a consequence. Wednesday's bond market was barren of any feature. Total sales, par value, $775,000.

United States 5s registered, advanced $\frac{1}{4}$, the refunding 2s when issued, registered, $\frac{1}{4}$, and do. coupon $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent in the bid price. The 3s coupons declined $\frac{1}{4}$.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Wheat on Wednesday was firm on strong cables and smaller northwest receipts, but succumbed later to more favorable weather and large primary receipts, closing weak. October $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ lower. Corn closed $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ and oats $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ down. Provisions closed but little changed. The crippled wire service made all markets dull.

Roosevelt in South Dakota.

Brookings, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor Roosevelt's special train arrived here. Many receptions took place on the way and numerous speeches were made from the platform of the car and from specially arranged street stands around which the inhabitants of the towns crowded. An outdoor meeting was held in a tent near the courthouse grounds at this place. A torch-light procession escorted the governor's carriage through the streets of the city.

Sons of Veterans.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At the nineteenth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans the officers elected were: Commander-in-chief, E. A. Alexander, Reading, Pa.; senior vice commander, A. H. Kawitzer, Omaha, Neb.; junior vice commander, Charles S. Davis, Washington, D. C.; consul, Dan C. Cable, Nelsonville, O.; C. J. Post, Grand Rapids, Mich., and James A. Adams, Atlantic City, N. J. Providence, R. I., was selected as the place of holding the next meeting.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

SWEET CHARITY.

Don't fail to respond to the call of sweet charity. The need is great for funds for the sufferers in Texas. Now is the accepted hour. Let your contributions be sent in without delay.

BASE BALL.

The Pittsburg club seems to be desirous of reaching the much coveted berth of first place in the race. The lads have been playing superb ball of late. Jesse Tannehill carried off the honors yesterday and saved the game. His double header was a dandy. Pittsburg is very proud of its club at the present time.

CHINA.

As the full knowledge of the atrocities perpetrated in China against our missionaries and the native converts come to light, the apologists for the savages should hide their heads or else take steamer and go over the big pond and join their friends the Boxers. We have no earthly use for such creatures on this side of the water.

THE GALVESTON HORROR.

The conditions in Texas show an appalling calamity. There is no sensational work connected with the last reports. The ghastly facts stand out in bold relief. Liverpool, England, makes immediate contribution of ten thousand dollars. Our own people will give unstintingly when they realize the full horror of the situation. Life seems to be held very cheaply. Pestilence will follow the flood if heroic measures are not taken at once. General McKibben will bring order from chaos.

LOOTING THE DEAD.

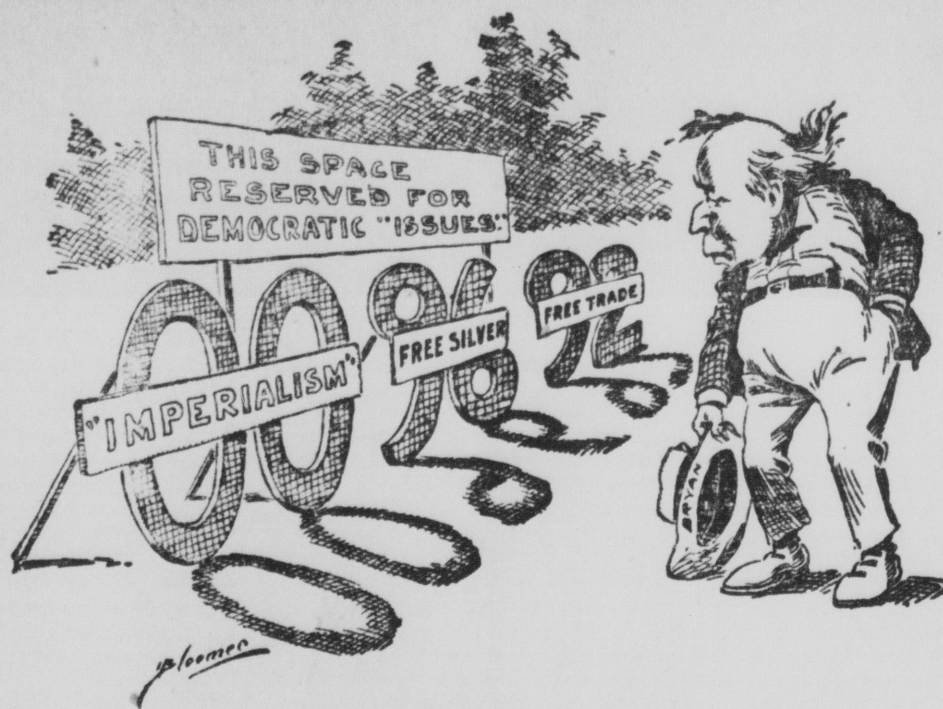

If the reports from Galveston be true respecting the looting and mutilation of the dead, affairs must be in an awful condition. Swift punishment is apparently falling upon the ghouls. Incensed citizens first took the law in their own hands and executed judgment with prompt decision. The police authorities afterwards assumed charge, and now the power of the military arm of the nation has stepped in. It seems impossible that beings in human form could act as these ghouls are reported to have done.

CHANGE FRONT.

It is a difficult thing to do when in the face of a foe and in the midst of a hot battle—a struggle for victory and supremacy. But it now seems the only alternative for William Jennings Bryan and his followers. "Anti-imperialism" has lost its power as a battle cry or slogan. In fact it has become a "boomerang" against the silver Democracy and is creating consternation in their ranks. The "militarism" bugaboo wont scare the nation a little bit. Our soldiers are citizen soldiers, and when they doff the uniform they step into business life and civil pursuits as if they had never known how to load and fire a rifle or wield a saber. This was true of the "millions" of men at the close of our terrible civil war, and it will be true of the thousands of brave and gallant men who are now doing stern duty under Old Glory in the Philippines and in China. The great mass of the voters of the United States love and honor and respect the brave men who respond to the call of arms in the hour of emergency. Bryan's political star reached its zenith some 30 days since, and it is slowly but surely declining and setting behind the western hills.

BOOZE.

Intoxicants claim victims very fast of late in this city of East Liverpool. Men and women in a state of drunkenness are very common sights upon the streets of the municipality. Yesterday afternoon a woman, claiming decency and respectability, staggered along one of our principal thoroughfares. Last evening a brawny, stalwart, fine looking man staggered down street past the News Review office, by the side of his wife, and for almost every step taken he uttered a horrible oath. Men have been drunk lately in this city when they should have been in attendance at the funeral of those whom they had sworn to love, cherish and protect. Of a truth we are bearing an awful burden of sin in consequence of the open saloon in our midst. Where stand you, my neighbor and friend, Democrat, Republican, Populist or Prohibitionist? You must be for or against. There is no middle ground. God will hold the reins of judgment. We are not your judges. In the sight of the Master are your skirts clear of the blood of your brother? There be no politics in the matter. It is common ground for common decency and common humanity. The liquor dealer and saloon keeper does not care a baubee for Democracy or Republicanism. He is after the dollars; and he will bury his country and his country's honor in an ocean of misery in order that he may obtain dollars. This is a plain statement of fact, and you know it. Have you the courage of your convictions? Dare you stand upright, like a man should, and openly declare your undying enmity to the accursed liquor traffic?

Shops May be Moved.

Steubenville Gazette.
A Cleveland & Pittsburg official said last night:

"I would not be surprised to see the shops locate at Mingo Junction to do work for both roads. The C. & P. head officials have been sighting and figuring around in the locality of Mingo for some time. They are crowded for space at Wellsville."

Divided the Cash.

Yellow Cross company, U. R. K. of P., held a meeting to determine what should be done with the $200 prize money obtained at East Liverpool on July 4 and the $1,000 at Detroit. It was voted that the 39 members be given $30 each, and that the remainder be placed in the treasury.
Alliance Leader.

Married at New Brighton.

New Brighton News.
Miss Bertha Pinkerton and Flave Robertson, both of East Liverpool, O., were married yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian parsonage by Dr. J. D. Moorhead. The only witnesses were members of the pastor's family. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts' left for East Liverpool at 6 o'clock.

Made an Arrest.

James Boyle was arrested by Patrolman Woods just before noon today. The man is about 80 years of age, was slightly inebriated and the officers feared he would hurt himself. He was taken to jail in the patrol and will probably be allowed to go when he gets sober.

Among the aborigines of Australia the most common form of punishment less than death is the spearing of the offender through different parts of the body.

IN LESS THAN THREE MONTHS

The Independent Telephone Company Will Have Connection With Pittsburg.

INDEPENDENT WORK THERE

Is Progressing Very Nicely and President Thayer Predicts Through Service

IN A VERY SHORT TIME

Sept. 12, 1900.

I have had very many inquiries from the subscribers to our telephone system, in regard to our Pittsburg connection, but until today I have not been able to give any definite answer as to how soon such a connection will be made. However, I spent yesterday in Pittsburg looking after our matters in that city, and find that the Pittsburg & Allegheny Telephone company is very pleasantly located on the corner of Seventh avenue and Fountain street with a very large and commodious four-story building wherein their central switchboard is now set and connected to the underground work, ready for business.

They have also about one thousand 'phones on the walls in the business houses of that city, and are putting them in at a rate of fifty and sixty per day. Connected with this central building are three other buildings for substations, one being located in Allegheny with a very large switchboard, also ready for business. Two of them being on the Pittsburg side, making them four buildings with four separate switchboards for the Pittsburg-Allegheny proposition.

They are using a full copper metallic central energy long distance system and I am assured that they will be ready to connect with our lines at the state line, some time during the latter part of November or the first of December, and, judging by the progress they are making, I see no reason why this will not be done.

This letter is written especially to inform the subscribers to the Columbiana Co. Telephone system, who have much business with Pittsburg people, that the Independent Company in Pittsburg is not sleeping, but that it is pushing forward as rapidly as possible, and that, in a very few months, service will be given from Cleveland through to Pittsburg and on to Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

SWEET CHARITY.

Don't fail to respond to the call of sweet charity. The need is great for funds for the sufferers in Texas. Now is the accepted hour. Let your contributions be sent in without delay.

BASE BALL.

The Pittsburg club seems to be desirous of reaching the much coveted berth of first place in the race. The lads have been playing superb ball of late. Jesse Tannehill carried off the honors yesterday and saved the game. His double header was a dandy. Pittsburg is very proud of its club at the present time.

CHINA.

As the full knowledge of the atrocities perpetrated in China against our missionaries and the native converts come to light, the apologists for the savages should hide their heads or else take steamer and go over the big pond and join their friends the Boxers. We have no earthly use for such creatures on this side of the water.

THE GALVESTON HORROR.

The conditions in Texas show an appalling calamity. There is no sensational work connected with the last reports. The ghastly facts stand out in bold relief. Liverpool, England, makes immediate contribution of ten thousand dollars. Our own people will give unstintingly when they realize the full horror of the situation. Life seems to be held very cheaply. Pestilence will follow the flood if heroic measures are not taken at once. General McKibben will bring order from chaos.

LOOTING THE DEAD.

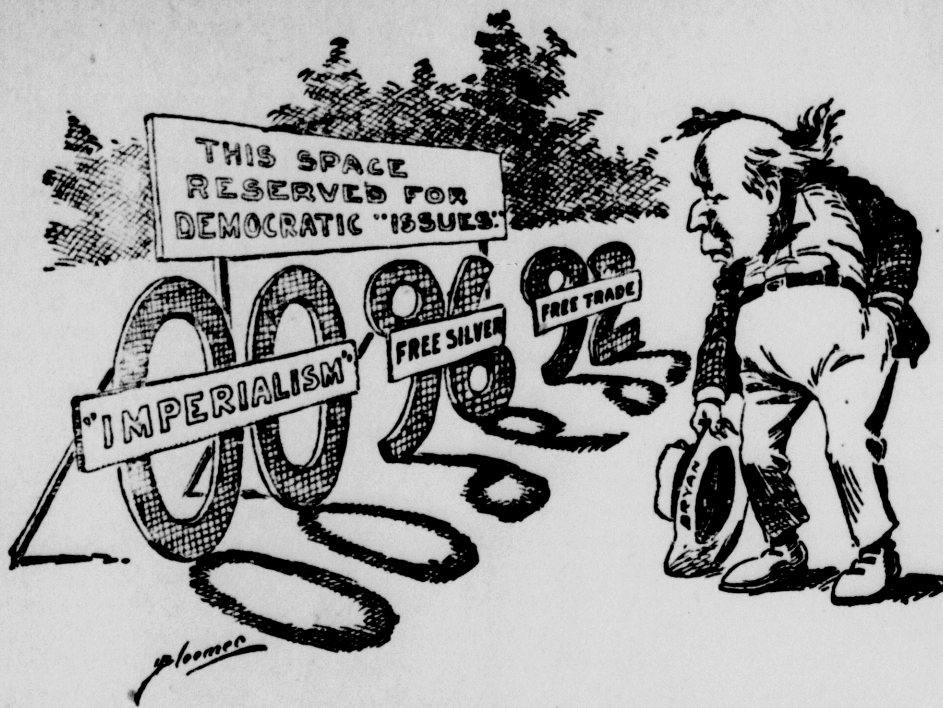

If the reports from Galveston be true respecting the looting and mutilation of the dead, affairs must be in an awful condition. Swift punishment is apparently falling upon the ghouls. Incensed citizens first took the law in their own hands and executed judgment with prompt decision. The police authorities afterwards assumed charge, and now the power of the military arm of the nation has stepped in. It seems impossible that beings in human form could act as these ghouls are reported to have done.

CHANGE FRONT.

It is a difficult thing to do when in the face of a foe and in the midst of a hot battle—a struggle for victory and supremacy. But it now seems the only alternative for William Jennings Bryan and his followers. "Anti-imperialism" has lost its power as a battle cry or slogan. In fact it has become a "boomerang" against the silver Democracy and is creating consternation in their ranks. The "militarism" bugaboo wont scare the nation a little bit. Our soldiers are citizen soldiers, and when they doff the uniform they step into business life and civil pursuits as if they had never known how to load and fire a rifle or wield a saber. This was true of the "millions" of men at the close of our terrible civil war, and it will be true of the thousands of brave and gallant men who are now doing stern duty under Old Glory in the Philippines and in China. The great mass of the voters of the United States love and honor and respect the brave men who respond to the call of arms in the hour of emergency. Bryan's political star reached its zenith some 30 days since, and it is slowly but surely declining and setting behind the western hills.

BOOZE.

Intoxicants claim victims very fast of late in this city of East Liverpool. Men and women in a state of drunkenness are very common sights upon the streets of the municipality. Yesterday afternoon a woman, claiming decency and respectability, staggered along one of our principal thoroughfares. Last evening a brawny, stalwart, fine looking man staggered down street past the News Review office, by the side of his wife, and for almost every step taken he uttered a horrible oath. Men have been drunk lately in this city when they should have been in attendance at the funeral of those whom they had sworn to love, cherish and protect. Of a truth we are bearing an awful burden of sin in consequence of the open saloon in our midst. Where stand you, my neighbor and friend, Democrat, Republican, Populist or Prohibitionist? You must be for or against. There is no middle ground. God will hold the reins of judgment. We are not your judges. In the sight of the Master are your skirts clear of the blood of your brother? There be no politics in the matter. It is common ground for common decency and common humanity. The liquor dealer and saloon keeper does not care a baubee for Democracy or Republicanism. He is after the dollars; and he will bury his country and his country's honor in an ocean of misery in order that he may obtain dollars. This is a plain statement of fact, and you know it. Have you the courage of your convictions? Dare you stand upright, like a man should, and openly declare your undying enmity to the accursed liquor traffic?

Shops May be Moved.

Steubenville Gazette.

A Cleveland & Pittsburg official said last night:

"I would not be surprised to see the shops locate at Mingo Junction to do work for both roads. The C. & P. head officials have been sighting and figuring around in the locality of Mingo for some time. They are crowded for space at Wellsville."

Divided the Cash.

Yellow Cross company, U. R. K. of P., held a meeting to determine what should be done with the $200 prize money obtained at East Liverpool on July 4 and the $1,000 at Detroit. It was voted that the 39 members be given $30 each, and that the remainder be placed in the treasury. Alliance Leader.

Married at New Brighton.

New Brighton News.

Miss Bertha Pinkerton and Flave Robertson, both of East Liverpool, O., were married yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian parsonage by Dr. J. D. Moorhead. The only witnesses were members of the pastor's family. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left for East Liverpool at 6 o'clock.

Made an Arrest.

James Boyle was arrested by Patrolman Woods just before noon today. The man is about 80 years of age, was slightly inebriated and the officers feared he would hurt himself. He was taken to jail in the patrol and will probably be allowed to go when he gets sober.

Among the aborigines of Australia the most common form of punishment less than death is the spearing of the offender through different parts of the body.

The Independent Telephone Company Will Have Connection With Pittsburg.

IN A VERY SHORT TIME

Sept. 12, 1900.

I have had very many inquiries from the subscribers to our telephone system, in regard to our Pittsburg connection, but until today I have not been able to give any definite answer as to how soon such a connection will be made. However, I spent yesterday in Pittsburg looking after our matters in that city, and find that the Pittsburg & Allegheny Telephone company is very pleasantly located on the corner of Seventh avenue and Fountain street with a very large and commodious four-story building wherein their central switchboard is now set and connected to the underground work, ready for business.

They have also about one thousand phones on the walls in the business houses of that city, and are putting them in at a rate of fifty and sixty per day. Connected with this central building are three other buildings for substations, one being located in Allegheny with a very large switchboard, also ready for business. Two of them being on the Pittsburg side, making them four buildings with four separate switchboards for the Pittsburg-Allegheny proposition.

They are using a full copper metallic central energy long distance system and I am assured that they will be ready to connect with our lines at the state line, some time during the latter part of November or the first of December, and, judging by the progress they are making, I see no reason why this will not be done.

This letter is written especially to inform the subscribers to the Columbiana Co. Telephone system, who have much business with Pittsburg people, that the Independent Company in Pittsburg is not sleeping, but that it is pushing forward as rapidly as possible, and that, in a very few months, service will be given from Cleveland through to Pittsburg and on to Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

THEY COULD NOT AROUSE CENTRAL

Drivers Bailey and Bentley Tell
Their Story of the Fire
Tuesday Night.

TRIED HARD TO TELEPHONE

To the Department and Much Valuable Time Was Lost
In the Effort.

BOYS WENT TO THE STATION

It is just possible that the catastrophe which occurred on Franklin street yesterday morning could have been avoided.

John Bailey, stable boss at the ice plant, says he came down the alley from his home opposite the works, and the smoke almost blinded him, and without a moment's hesitation he grabbed the key to the business office, which hung in a convenient spot in the engine room, and working his way to the office, attempted to telephone to the fire station, but that it was impossible to arouse any one in either exchange. Bailey says he rang both phones a number of times, but received no answer.

He left the office and went back to the factory. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bentley had been up almost all night with a sick child and saw the smoke almost immediately.

Mr. Bentley is an employe of the ice plant and he always carries a key to the office.

When his attention was attracted by the smoke he says he lost no time in hastening across the tracks to the office, intending to send in an alarm by telephone. He arrived only a few minutes after Bailey had been there, and although he and a colored man rang both telephones, he says they received no response to their repeated efforts.

This all occurred before there was a sign of fire about the building, nothing but smoke being visible. Some time after George Brown and another colored boy had started for the fire station on a run Bailey says he made another attempt to arouse the people in the telephone exchanges, and this time, long after the department should have been on the ground, he succeeded in having the connection made, but by this time Brown and his companion had arrived at the fire station and the department was just leaving.

It is estimated that a delay of at least 20 minutes was occasioned by the inability of the men to send an alarm by telephone, and that in the case of a fire of this character 20 minutes would amount to a great deal.

Manager Montgomery was seen today and stated that it might be possible the calls were not answered, as it was a bad night for the telephone lines.

Mr. Montgomery states that on account of the wind the drops were falling continually, so that it was impossible to tell whether it was a call or the wind that caused them to drop. It was also impossible to answer them all.

Manager Swaney, of the Bell company, was out of the city, but the party in charge stated that their phone at the ice plant is a desk phone, and it might have been possible that the parties did not know how to use it. He also stated that the telephone might have been out of order.

Mrs. F. D. Palmer Presented the Cause of the Freedmen Last Evening.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church had a rare treat last night in listening to Mrs. F. D. Palmer present the cause of the freedmen in our country.

Mrs. Palmer is thoroughly devoted to her work, having been connected with it as secretary of the board of freedmen for a number of years.

Before that, during the life of her husband, who was a medical missionary, they lived and worked in a foreign field.

Mrs. Palmer illustrated her lecture with a map, showing the location of the schools for educating the colored girls in the south, but numerous as they are, they are inadequate to the needs of the rapidly increasing race.

Mrs. Palmer was entertained at the home of Mrs. Dr. Clark. She left this morning to continue the work in the state of Illinois.

East End Residents Think the Board of Health Should Test the Milk.

A number of East Enders are anxious that the board of health do something in regard to the run through the pasture by the school house.

Dairymen pasture their cows there and then sell the milk, and it is feared that, considering the condition of the water the cows are drinking, the milk cannot be pure and wholesome.

The matter was reported to the health board some time ago, and the case was dropped, with merely viewing the situation.

The Cow Got Out.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning two ladies called on the East End authorities and said that a cow was roaming at will in their garden. It was turned over to Officer Hamilton, who had to milk the cow and find the owner. It was found to belong to Mr. Lake.

The gentleman was not to blame in the matter, as he is very particular to keep his fences in good condition, but the recent severe wind had blown a big tree down on the fence, breaking a hole in it.

No damage claims were made, so the cow was returned to Mr. Lake and the matter dismissed.

He May be Dead.

It is reported that Rose, the Italian, who was so badly burned, died last night. An attempt was made to ascertain the truth in the matter, but nothing definite can be learned.

Dr. Noble, the railroad surgeon, called last night and thought there was some hope of his recovery, but he had not heard from his patient this morning.

Went to Wheeling.

Among the East Enders who are taking in the Wheeling fair are Dr. Davis, Dr. Mowan, Harry and Ed Herbert, E. J. Owens, Michael Kerr, Lawson and Tom Hendershot, Sam Dixon, George, Lemon and Tom Ramsey.

Sprained His Wrist.

Ed Herbert, playing with a child the other day in running after it, fell on his wrist and sprained it very badly.

A New Boy.

Born, yesterday, to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Sanford, a boy.

Cleared Away.

The remains of the wreck have all been cleared away.

Personals.

George Messenger, who is employed at Foutts barber shops, is spending his vacation with his family at Williamsport. Archie Mayer, formerly employed at Frank Allen's barber shop, is taking his place during his absence.

Willis and Lee Noah, of Pittsburgh, are the guests of their uncle, James Noah, of Mulberry street.

Democrats Take Notice.

There will be a meeting at City Hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening for the purpose of organizing a Bryan & Stevenson club. A full attendance is desired.

A BODY BLOW.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS GAVE IT TO SALOONISTS.

Refused to Admit Them to the Order
by a Practically Unanimous Vote.

The Catholic Knights of Ohio gave the liquor traffic a body blow Wednesday. The Catholic Knights are holding their annual convention at Army and Navy hall, Cleveland. The society is organized for insurance purposes, and up to the present time has rejected saloon keepers as bad risks.

A few months ago branch 16, located in Cincinnati, started an agitation in favor of the admission of saloonists. The different branches were canvassed, and the matter was brought to the attention of the executive committee. Thence it was carried to the state convention.

When the proposition to change the laws for the benefit of the liquor dealer was read Wednesday it brought out a storm of protests, led by Dr. Lawless, of Toledo, who showed many reasons why men who sell liquor are bad risks for insurance companies. Frequent reference was made to the moral side of the question, the statement being made that the church was against the liquor traffic.

When a vote was taken it was nearly unanimous against the admission of saloon keepers. Apparently not more than three or four votes out of 900 were in favor of the saloonist.

After the defeat of the measure an effort was made to compromise by permitting members to engage in the saloon business after they had belonged to the order 10 years. The vote was simply a repetition of the first.

The convention closed late Wednesday afternoon.

Tuesday Night.

To the Department and Much

BOYS WENT TO THE STATION

It is just possible that the catastrophe which occurred on Franklin street yesterday morning could have been avoided.

John Bailey, stable boss at the ice plant, says he came down the alley from his home opposite the works, and the smoke almost blinded him, and without a moment's hesitation he grabbed the key to the business office, which hung in a convenient spot in the engine room, and working his way to the office, attempted to telephone to the fire station, but that it was impossible to arouse any one in either exchange. Bailey says he rang both phones a number of times, but received no answer.

He left the office and went back to the factory. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bentley had been up almost all night with a sick child and saw the smoke almost immediately.

Mr. Bentley is an employe of the ice plant and he always carries a key to the office.

When his attention was attracted by the smoke he says he lost no time in hastening across the tracks to the office, intending to send in an alarm by telephone. He arrived only a few minutes after Bailey had been there, and although he and a colored man rang both telephones, he says they received no response to their repeated efforts.

This all occurred before there was a sign of fire about the building, nothing but smoke being visible. Some time after George Brown and another colored boy had started for the fire station on a run Bailey says he made another attempt to arouse the people in the telephone exchanges, and this time, long after the department should have been on the ground, he succeeded in having the connection made, but by this time Brown and his companion had arrived at the fire station and the department was just leaving.

It is estimated that a delay of at least 20 minutes was occasioned by the inability of the men to send an alarm by telephone, and that in the case of a fire of this character 20 minutes would amount to a great deal.

Manager Montgomery was seen today and stated that it might be possible the calls were not answered, as it was a bad night for the telephone lines.

Mr. Montgomery states that on account of the wind the drops were falling continually, so that it was impossible to tell whether it was a call or the wind that caused them to drop. It was also impossible to answer them all.

Manager Swaney, of the Bell company, was out of the city, but the party in charge stated that their phone at the ice plant is a desk phone, and it might have been possible that the parties did not know how to use it. He also stated that the telephone might have been out of order.

of Health Should Test the Milk.

A number of East Enders are anxious that the board of health do something in regard to the run through the pasture by the school house.

Dairymen pasture their cows there and then sell the milk, and it is feared that, considering the condition of the water the cows are drinking, the milk cannot be pure and wholesome.

The matter was reported to the health board some time ago, and the case was dropped, with merely viewing the situation.

The Cow Got Out.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning two ladies called on the East End authorities and said that a cow was roaming at will in their garden. It was turned over to Officer Hamilton, who had to milk the cow and find the owner. It was found to belong to Mr. Lake.

The gentleman was not to blame in the matter, as he is very particular to keep his fences in good condition, but the recent severe wind had blown a big tree down on the fence, breaking a hole in it.

No damage claims were made, so the cow was returned to Mr. Lake and the matter dismissed.

He May be Dead.

It is reported that Rose, the Italian, who was so badly burned, died last night. An attempt was made to ascertain the truth in the matter, but nothing definite can be learned.

Dr. Noble, the railroad surgeon, called last night and thought there was some hope of his recovery, but he had not heard from his patient this morning.

Went to Wheeling.

Among the East Enders who are taking in the Wheeling fair are Dr. Davis, Dr. Mowan, Harry and Ed Herbert, E. J. Owens, Michael Kerr, Lawson and Tom Hendershot, Sam Dixon, George, Lemon and Tom Ramsey.

Sprained His Wrist.

Ed Herbert, playing with a child the other day in running after it, fell on his wrist and sprained it very badly.

A New Boy.

Born, yesterday, to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Sanford, a boy.

Cleared Away.

The remains of the wreck have all been cleared away.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS GAVE IT TO SALOONISTS.

Refused to Admit Them to the Order
by a Practically Unanimous Vote.

The Catholic Knights of Ohio gave the liquor traffic a body blow Wednesday. The Catholic Knights are holding their annual convention at Army and Navy hall, Cleveland. The society is organized for insurance purposes, and up to the present time has rejected saloon keepers as bad risks.

A few months ago branch 16, located in Cincinnati, started an agitation in favor of the admission of saloonists. The different branches were canvassed, and the matter was brought to the attention of the executive committee. Thence it was carried to the state convention.

When the proposition to change the laws for the benefit of the liquor dealer was read Wednesday it brought out a storm of protests, led by Dr. Lawless, of Toledo, who showed many reasons why men who sell liquor are bad risks for insurance companies. Frequent reference was made to the moral side of the question, the statement being made that the church was against the liquor traffic.

When a vote was taken it was nearly unanimous against the admission of saloon keepers. Apparently not more than three or four votes out of 900 were in favor of the saloonist.

After the defeat of the measure an effort was made to compromise by permitting members to engage in the saloon business after they had belonged to the order 10 years. The vote was simply a repetition of the first.

The convention closed late Wednesday afternoon.

THIEVES SHOT DEAD.

Seven Negro Vandals Killed at Galveston.

WERE CAUGHT ROBBING BODIES.

Mayor Jones Estimated the Number of Dead Victims of the Storm In and About the City at 5,000—Armed Men Patrol the Ruined Districts.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 13 (via Texas City and Houston).—Mayor Jones estimated the dead in and about Galveston at about 5,000.

At a meeting of the relief committee reports were received from the various wards. The chairman called for armed men to assist in getting labor to bury the dead and clear the wreckage and arrangements were made to supply this demand.

The situation in the city is that there is plenty of volunteers for this service, but an insufficiency of arms. There have been two or three small riots, but the officers have managed to quell them. The committee rejected the proposition of trying to pay for work, letting the laborers secure their own rations. It was decided to go ahead impressing men into service if necessary, issuing orders for rations only to those who work or were unable to work. All of the ward chairmen reported the imperative need of disinfectants. A committee was appointed to sequester all the disinfectants in the city, including the lime which escaped wetting and to obtain more. Houston was called upon for a large lot of lime.

Dan Henderson announced that Mr. Van Vleck, the general master of the Southern Pacific, authorized the committee to draw on that company for $5,000. Mr. Vleck returned to Houston on the tug June to send a barge load of supplies.

Destitute persons who have relatives to go elsewhere will be furnished with credentials by the relief committee and will be taken to Texas City free of charge and carried by the Galveston, Houston & Henderson to Houston free. Mr. Van Vleck is arranging transportation for them from Houston to the points whither they are destined.

Alderman McMasters took charge of the work at the water works. The machinery has been cleared of the debris and the pipes found to be badly damaged, and plumbers, steam fitters and boiler makers are at work on them. Mr. McMasters said he thinks it will be possible to turn water into the mains today.

The city is patrolled by about 2,000 police officers, special officers, soldiers and deputy sheriffs. Orders were issued to the soldiers and police to kill any person caught in the act of robbing the dead. Seven negro vandals were discovered and paid the penalty of their crime with their lives. They were shot dead and their bodies carted away with dead victims of the storm.

No liquor is permitted to be sold under any circumstances unless ordered by the chairman of one of the committees or by a physician who must state that it is to be used for medicinal purposes. All persons not having business on the streets after dark must be identified before they will be allowed to pass. Unless identification is forthcoming they are arrested. No person is allowed to work in or about any building unless he has a written permit signed by the chief of police or deputy chief. No person is permitted to carry furniture or other property through the streets unless he has a written permit from the proper authority.

The police department has issued strict orders and these orders will be enforced to the letter to clear the city of all the outside sporting element. Detectives from Houston and Dallas have arrived here. No gambling is permitted and any violation of this rule is prosecuted to the fullest extent.

Professor Buckner, of the Buckner Orphans' home, of Dallas, arrived here and at once went to the city hall. He offered to throw the doors of his establishment wide open for the orphans of Galveston and announced that he was ready to care for about 100 to 150 of the children.

QUAY CANDIDATES NAMED.

The Result Will Be Independent Opponents in Some Philadelphia Districts—Nominees For Congress.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—Republican county, judicial, congressional, senatorial and representative conventions were held here. The city treasurer's convention named J. Hampton Moore, secretary to Mayor Ashbridge, who had no opposition. Jacob Singer was unanimously nominated for register of wills, and Hon. Thomas K. Finletter was renominated without opposition for common pleas court judge.

The vigorous contest in the Fifth senatorial district between William H. Berklebach, the organization candidate, and Former Speaker of the House Harry F. Walton, was practically ended at the primaries, when a large majority of Berklebach delegates were elected. Walton declined to go into the convention.

In the legislative district contests the administration forces were generally successful.

Independent contests in several districts will be the inevitable outcome of these contests for the legislature based upon the charges of fraud in conducting the primary elections.

Following are the nominees for congress:

Second—Robert Adams, Jr.
Third—Henry Burk.
Fourth—James R. Young.
Fifth—Edward De V. Morrell.

A STRIKE DECLARED.

Pennsylvania Anthracite Miners Told to Quit Monday.

BIG MONEY LOSSES EXPECTED.

Officers of the Union Estimate They Have a Cash Balance of $1,000,000, With Which to Fight—Some of the Grievances of the Men.

Indianapolis, Sept. 13.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, declared a strike in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, to take effect next Monday. The operators have stuck to their refusal to arbitrate.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—The mine employees in the anthracite district of Pennsylvania number about 145,000. The membership of the union is not known to a certainty, but the leaders claim that about 80 per cent of the members are organized. The union men do not anticipate any difficulty in inducing the unorganized miners to strike.

The coal basins are distributed throughout several counties, the more important workings being located in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Schuylkill, Carbon and Northumberland counties. The average production from the entire district is about 75,000,000 tons a year.

The closing of the mines is expected to reduce the regular coal production about 75 per cent, leaving free only the Reading Coal & Iron Company's production of about 20.5 per cent of the total output of the region, and about 5.65 per cent of the Lehigh valley's production. Should the strike continue over a period of two months the loss in wages, it was estimated, will amount to about $8,400,000; loss to railroads, about $20,000,000, and loss to mine operators, about $20,000,000. Officers of the miners' union estimate that the organization has a cash balance of $1,000,000 in the treasury with which to conduct the strike.

In their demands the miners ask the correction of many evils, the more important of which are the following:

Abolition of the company stores, reduction in the price of powder to $1.50 a keg, abolition of company doctors, semi-monthly payment of wages, abolition of the sliding scale, wages paid in cash, 2,240 pounds to the ton, an advance of 20 per cent in wages less than $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 a day, that all classes of day labor now receiving $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 shall receive 15 per cent over present wages, that all day labor now receiving $1.75 shall be advanced 10 per cent, that no miner shall have at any time more than one breast, gang or other class of work, and shall get only his legal share of cars.

CHAFFEE IS READY.

At Word From the President He Will Quit Peking—Li to Be Protected.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The question of withdrawing the American troops at once from Peking is now before the president and a speedy decision is expected and required. The action of the French government as reported by cable dispatches in joining Russia in orders for the withdrawal of troops has brought about the contingency touched upon in the reply to Russia in the following language:

"The result of these considerations is that unless there is such a general expression by the powers in favor of continued occupation as to modify the views expressed by the government of Russia and lead to a general agreement for continued occupation, we shall give instructions to the commander of the American forces in China to withdraw our troops from Peking after due conference with the other commanders as to time and manner of withdrawal."

General Chaffee was made acquainted with the attitude of the government, and was directed to hold himself in readiness to withdraw his troops. The sending of further supplies to him has been stopped, and he now awaits but the signal from Washington to begin his movement. The decision of this government was announced to facilitate Li Hung Chang's passage from Shanghai to Peking. Later it was announced that Consul General Goodnow had reported that Li would leave Shanghai next Friday for Tien Tsin. His means of transportation are not known, but he may have a United States vessel if such a thing is absolutely necessary to his reaching Tien Tsin. Possibly negotiations may be conducted there. Meanwhile the state department is doing its best to force the Chinese government, through Li Hung Chang, to restore peace in the provinces and cease outrages upon American citizens, which have been continued up to the present day.

VESSELS FOUNDERED.

Lives Lost In a Great Gale on the Lakes—Many Other Ships Damaged.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—The tail end of the West Indian hurricane, which swept over Lake Erie, proved to have been the most disastrous storm that has visited this section in several years. The wind at one time attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour, and it was then blowing directly from the west, having practically a clear sweep of the whole lake.

The John B. Lyon, a 255 foot steamer, owned by J. C. Gilchrist, of this city, foundered about five miles off Conneaut, O., and all but two of her crew of 16 were lost. The schooner Dundee sank about 15 miles off this port and the cook, a woman, was drowned, the master and crew escaping on a raft.

Other steamers were damaged and some had a hard time making different ports.

THAT SILVER PLANK.

Why Did Bryan Insist on Having It If It Don't Count?

Why did Bryan coerce the Democratic convention into putting free silver in the Kansas City platform twice—one in the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, and once in a new resolution declaring for it in even more emphatic terms? Did he do this in dead earnest, or just for fun? If he meant it, does not any advocate of Bryan disgrace his candidate who says that Bryan means nothing by this double declaration, except to deceive the voters?

Via Pennsylvania Lines, Account the Exposition.

The dates on which excursion tickets to Pittsburg will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines this year, account the Exposition are as follows: Thursdays, September, 6, 13, 20 and 27, and October 4, 11 and 18. The rate will be single fare for round trip, plus 25 cents to cover admission coupon to the Exposition.

Excursion tickets will be sold at that rate from Dennison, Ohio; Cadiz, Ohio; Chester, W. Va.; Wheeling, W. Va.; Washington, Pa. and intermediate ticket stations on the Southwest system; and from Massillon, O.; Ash-tabula, O.; Erie, Pa.; Stoneboro, Pa.; New Philadelphia, O.; Powhatan, O., and intermediate ticket stations on the Northwest system. Excursion tickets, including admission to the Exposition, will not be sold for less than 75 cents.

The return limit on all tickets will be three days, including date of sale.

The Pittsburg Exposition will be greater and grander this season than ever before. The popular features of former years will be retained, and many new ones will be added, including A Day in the Alps; Jim Key, the marvelous Educated Horse; A Crystal Maze; A Mexican Village; special exhibits of the products of the entire world from the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.

Music will be furnished by the world's leading musical organizations. The famous Banda Rossa, Italy's greatest musical organization, will appear at the Exposition Sept. 5 to 15; Emil Paur, with the New York Metropolitan Opera House orchestra, will be here Sept. 17 to 22; Damrosch's New York Symphony orchestra of 50 pieces will be the musical attraction Oct. 1 to Oct. 13; Sousa and his great band, direct from triumphs in Europe, will fill two engagements at the Expo, the first from Sept. 24 to Sept. 29 and the second from Oct. 15 to Oct. 20, closing the Exposition on the latter date.

Information concerning tickets, rates, time of trains, etc., will be furnished upon application to Pennsylvania Lines ticket agents in territory mentioned.

FOREIGN VOTERS.

Chairman Jones Offered an Insult to Them In Public.

Keep careful track of the time, the place and the occasion of the remark by the present chairman of the Democratic national committee, Senator Jones of Arkansas, in these words: "Hundreds of thousands of ignorant foreigners who were here taking bread out of the mouths of honest labor, voted at the last election at the dictation of McKinley's supporters. These foreigners comprised fully one-half of the number of votes received by McKinley."

This language was used in a set speech to the Arkansas legislature, at Little Rock, January 20, 1897, thanking them for his third election to the United States senate. In that he discussed Bryan's defeat the previous November, speaking as the chairman then, as now, of the Democratic national committee and the head of the management of the Bryan campaign. There is no escaping his responsibility for this insult to all foreign voters, which we give as it was printed on the day after its delivery, as reported in the Arkansas Gazette, the principle Democratic paper of his state, and the organ of the Democratic party.

THIEVES SHOT DEAD.

Seven Negro Vandals Killed at Galveston.

Mayor Jones Estimated the Number of Dead Victims of the Storm In and About the City at 5,000—Armed Men Patrol the Ruined Districts.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 13 (via Texas City and Houston).—Mayor Jones estimated the dead in and about Galveston at about 5,000.

At a meeting of the relief committee reports were received from the various wards. The chairman called for armed men to assist in getting labor to bury the dead and clear the wreckage and arrangements were made to supply this demand.

The situation in the city is that there is plenty of volunteers for this service, but an insufficiency of arms. There have been two or three small riots, but the officers have managed to quell them. The committee rejected the proposition of trying to pay for work, letting the laborers secure their own rations. It was decided to go ahead impressing men into service if necessary, issuing orders for rations only to those who work or were unable to work. All of the ward chairmen reported the imperative need of disinfectants. A committee was appointed to sequester all the disinfectants in the city, including the lime which escaped wetting and to obtain more. Houston was called upon for a large lot of lime.

Dan Henderson announced that Mr. Van Vleck, the general master of the Southern Pacific, authorized the committee to draw on that company for $5,000. Mr. Vleck returned to Houston on the tug June to send a barge load of supplies.

Destitute persons who have relatives to go elsewhere will be furnished with credentials by the relief committee and will be taken to Texas City free of charge and carried by the Galveston, Houston & Henderson to Houston free. Mr. Van Vleck is arranging transportation for them from Houston to the points whither they are destined.

Alderman McMasters took charge of the work at the water works. The machinery has been cleared of the debris and the pipes found to be badly damaged, and plumbers, steam fitters and boiler makers are at work on them. Mr. McMasters said he thinks it will be possible to turn water into the mains today.

The city is patrolled by about 2,000 police officers, special officers, soldiers and deputy sheriffs. Orders were issued to the soldiers and police to kill any person caught in the act of robbing the dead. Seven negro vandals were discovered and paid the penalty of their crime with their lives. They were shot dead and their bodies carted away with dead victims of the storm.

No liquor is permitted to be sold under any circumstances unless ordered by the chairman of one of the committees or by a physician who must state that it is to be used for medicinal purposes. All persons not having business on the streets after dark must be identified before they will be allowed to pass. Unless identification is forthcoming they are arrested. No person is allowed to work in or about any building unless he has a written permit signed by the chief of police or deputy chief. No person is permitted to carry furniture or other property through the streets unless he has a written permit from the proper authority.

The police department has issued strict orders and these orders will be enforced to the letter to clear the city of all the outside sporting element. Detectives from Houston and Dallas have arrived here. No gambling is permitted and any violation of this rule is prosecuted to the fullest extent.

Professor Buckner, of the Buckner Orphans' home, of Dallas, arrived here and at once went to the city hall. He offered to throw the doors of his establishment wide open for the orphans of Galveston and announced that he was ready to care for about 100 to 150 of the children.

QUAY CANDIDATES NAMED.

The Result Will Be Independent Opponents in Some Philadelphia Districts—Nominees For Congress.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—Republican county, judicial, congressional, senatorial and representative conventions were held here. The city treasurer's convention named J. Hampton Moore, secretary to Mayor Ashbridge, who had no opposition. Jacob Singer was unanimously nominated for recorder of wills, and Hon. Thomas K. Finletter was renominated without opposition for common pleas court judge.

The vigorous contest in the Fifth senatorial district between William H. Berklebach, the organization candidate, and Former Speaker of the House Harry F. Walton, was practically ended at the primaries, when a large majority of Berklebach delegates were elected. Walton declined to go into the convention.

In the legislative district contests the administration forces were generally successful.

Independent contests in several districts will be the inevitable outcome of these contests for the legislature based upon the charges of fraud in conducting the primary elections.

Following are the nominees for congress:

Second—Robert Adams, Jr.
Third—Henry Burk.
Fourth—James R. Young.
Fifth—Edward De V. Morrell.

A STRIKE DECLARED.

Pennsylvania Anthracite Miners Told to Quit Monday.

BIG MONEY LOSSES EXPECTED.

Officers of the Union Estimate They Have a Cash Balance of $1,000,000, With Which to Fight—Some of the Grievances of the Men.

Indianapolis, Sept. 13.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, declared a strike in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, to take effect next Monday. The operators have stuck to their refusal to arbitrate.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—The mine employees in the anthracite district of Pennsylvania number about 145,000. The membership of the union is not known to a certainty, but the leaders claim that about 80 per cent of the miners are organized. The union men do not anticipate any difficulty in inducing the unorganized miners to strike.

The coal basins are distributed throughout several counties, the more important workings being located in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Schuylkill, Carbon and Northumberland counties. The average production from the entire district is about 75,000,000 tons a year.

The closing of the mines is expected to reduce the regular coal production about 75 per cent, leaving free only the Reading Coal & Iron Company's production of about 20.5 per cent of the total output of the region, and about 5.65 per cent of the Lehigh valley's production. Should the strike continue over a period of two months the loss in wages, it was estimated, will amount to about $8,400,000; loss to railroads, about $20,000,000, and loss to mine operators, about $20,000,000. Officers of the miners' union estimate that the organization has a cash balance of $1,000,000 in the treasury with which to conduct the strike.

In their demands the miners ask the correction of many evils, the more important of which are the following:

Abolition of the company stores, reduction in the price of powder to $1.50 a keg, abolition of company doctors, semi-monthly payment of wages, abolition of the sliding scale, wages paid in cash, 2,240 pounds to the ton, an advance of 20 per cent in wages less than $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 a day, that all classes of day labor now receiving $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 shall receive 15 per cent over present wages, that all day labor now receiving $1.75 shall be advanced 10 per cent, that no miner shall have at any time more than one breast, gang or other class of work, and shall get only his legal share of cars.

CHAFFEE IS READY.

At Word From the President He Will Quit Peking—Li to Be Protected.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The question of withdrawing the American troops at once from Peking is now before the president and a speedy decision is expected and required. The action of the French government as reported by cable dispatches in joining Russia in orders for the withdrawal of troops has brought about the contingency touched upon in the reply to Russia in the following language:

"The result of these considerations is that unless there is such a general expression by the powers in favor of continued occupation as to modify the views expressed by the government of Russia and lead to a general agreement for continued occupation, we shall give instructions to the commander of the American forces in China to withdraw our troops from Peking after due conference with the other commanders as to time and manner of withdrawal."

General Chaffee was made acquainted with the attitude of the government, and was directed to hold himself in readiness to withdraw his troops. The sending of further supplies to him has been stopped, and he now awaits but the signal from Washington to begin his movement. The decision of this government was announced to facilitate Li Hung Chang's passage from Shanghai to Peking. Later it was announced that Consul General Goodnow had reported that Li would leave Shanghai next Friday for Tien Tsin. His means of transportation are not known, but he may have a United States vessel if such a thing is absolutely necessary to his reaching Tien Tsin. Possibly negotiations may be conducted there. Meanwhile the state department is doing its best to force the Chinese government, through Li Hung Chang, to restore peace in the provinces and cease outrages upon American citizens, which have been continued up to the present day.

VESSELS FOUNDERED.

Lives Lost in a Great Gale on the Lakes—Many Other Ships Damaged.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—The tail end of the West Indian hurricane, which swept over Lake Erie, proved to have been the most disastrous storm that has visited this section in several years. The wind at one time attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour, and it was then blowing directly from the west, having practically a clear sweep of the whole lake.

The John B. Lyon, a 255 foot steamer, owned by J. C. Gilchrist, of this city, foundered about five miles off Conneaut, O., and all but two of her crew of 16 were lost. The schooner Dundee sank about 15 miles off this port and the cook, a woman, was drowned, the master and crew escaping on a raft.

Other steamers were damaged and some had a hard time making different ports.

THAT SILVER PLANK.

Why Did Bryan Insist on Having It If It Don't Count?

Why did Bryan coerce the Democratic convention into putting free silver in the Kansas City platform twice—one in the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, and once in a new resolution declaring for it in even more emphatic terms? Did he do this in dead earnest, or just for fun? If he meant it, does not any advocate of Bryan disgrace his candidate who says that Bryan means nothing by this double declaration, except to deceive the voters?

Via Pennsylvania Lines, Account the Exposition.

The dates on which excursion tickets to Pittsburg will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines this year, account the Exposition are as follows: Thursdays, September, 6, 13, 20 and 27, and October 4, 11 and 18. The rate will be single fare for round trip, plus 25 cents to cover admission coupon to the Exposition.

Excursion tickets will be sold at that rate from Dennison, Ohio; Cadiz, Ohio; Chester, W. Va.; Wheeling, W. Va.; Washington, Pa. and intermediate ticket stations on the Southwest system; and from Massillon, O.; Ash-tabula, O.; Erie, Pa.; Stoneboro, Pa.; New Philadelphia, O.; Powhatan, O., and intermediate ticket stations on the Northwest system. Excursion tickets, including admission to the Exposition, will not be sold for less than 75 cents.

The return limit on all tickets will be three days, including date of sale.

The Pittsburg Exposition will be greater and grander this season than ever before. The popular features of former years will be retained, and many new ones will be added, including A Day in the Alps; Jim Key, the marvelous Educated Horse; A Crystal Maze; A Mexican Village; special exhibits of the products of the entire world from the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.

Music will be furnished by the world's leading musical organizations.

The famous Banda Rossa, Italy's greatest musical organization, will appear at the Exposition Sept. 5 to 15; Emil Paur, with the New York Metropolitan Opera House orchestra, will be here Sept. 15 to 22; Damosch's New York Symphony orchestra of 50 pieces will be the musical attraction Oct. 1 to Oct. 13; Sousa and his great band, direct from triumphs in Europe, will fill two engagements at the Expo., the first from Sept. 24 to Sept. 29 and the second from Oct. 15 to Oct. 20, closing the Exposition on the latter date.

Information concerning tickets, rates, time of trains, etc., will be furnished upon application to Pennsylvania Lines ticket agents in territory mentioned.

FOREIGN VOTERS.

Chairman Jones Offered an Insult to Them in Public.

Keep careful track of the time, the place and the occasion of the remark by the present chairman of the Democratic national committee, Senator Jones of Arkansas, in these words:

"Hundreds of thousands of ignorant foreigners who were here taking bread out of the mouths of honest labor, voted at the last election at the dictation of McKinley's supporters. These foreigners comprised fully one-half of the number of votes received by McKinley."

This language was used in a set speech to the Arkansas legislature, at Little Rock, January 20, 1897, thanking them for his third election to the United States senate. In that he discussed Bryan's defeat the previous November, speaking as the chairman then, as now, of the Democratic national committee and the head of the management of the Bryan campaign. There is no escaping his responsibility for this insult to all foreign voters, which we give as it was printed on the day after its delivery, as reported in the Arkansas Gazette, the principle Democratic paper of his state, and the organ of the Democratic party.

A LESSON IN HONESTY

Filipinos Will Be Given One, Said Wright.

1,000,000 FOR GOOD ROADS.

When Senor Torrea Expressed a Fear of the Spanish System of Disbursement, He Was Assured There Would Be No Crookedness—Satisfied With Reply.

Manila, Sept. 13.—At the first public legislative session of the Filipino commission bills appropriating $1,000,000 gold from the funds of the islands for highways and bridges and $2,500 in part payment of surveying expenses were passed.

Senor Torrea, attorney general, asked for information as to the method of disbursing the appropriation, reminding the commission of Spain's practices in connection with public funds. Gen. Luke Wright, of the commission, answering the inquiry, explained that good roads for the military were an economic necessity, and that General MacArthur, as the executive, was aided by trained armed engineers. The army was thus the best and only machine for supervising ably and economically the construction of such public works. The commission, he said, desired in this way to give the Filipinos an object lesson in the honest and efficient disbursement of public funds; and this would be all the more effective because it was the army's economical and honest administration that had created the surplus and made the appropriation of $1,000,000 possible.

Senor Torres expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the reply.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED.

Horrible Stories of Killings of Missionaries and Converts—Some Missionaries Unaccounted For.

London, Sept. 13.—All the correspondents in China are sending terrible stories of the wholesale massacre of missionaries and native Christians. It is asserted that during July between 15,000 and 20,000 converts were massacred in the northern provinces. Large numbers of missionaries are still unaccounted for and small hope is entertained of their escape.

STANCHFIELD FOR GOVERNOR.

Named by New York Democrats—Coler's Name Presented.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 13.—For governor—John B. Stanchfield, of Chemung.

For lieutenant governor—William F. Mackey, of Erie.

For secretary of state—John T. Norton, of Remsen.

For comptroller—Edwin S. Atwater, of Dutchess.

For treasurer—John B. Judson, of Fulton.

For attorney general—Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton.

For engineer and surveyor—Russell R. Stewart, of Onondaga.

This was the ticket named by the Democratic state convention. Its head was not selected without the indulgence of acrimonious personalities and a sarcastic exchange of some compliments among the leaders and supporters of Hill and Croker. But when the will of the convention had been finally registered, ex-Senator David B. Hill was first to propose the unanimous nomination of a friend of lifelong standing, John B. Stanchfield, which was taken up with unanimity. Hill had Coler's name presented, but it did no good.

MAN KILLED BY BURGLARS.

Wife and Five Children Tortured—Five Suspects Arrested.

Carey, O., Sept. 13.—W. C. Johnson was killed by burglars and his wife and five children were bound and tortured until all the money and valuables in the house were obtained. The burglars escaped and a posse is in pursuit.

Tiffin, O., Sept. 13.—Five men answering the description of the robbers were arrested at Rising Sun, taken to Fostoria and lodged in jail. They refuse to talk. Revolvers and burglar tools were found in their possession.

Pao-Ting-Fu Expedition Started.

Toku, Sept. 13.—Rain delayed the starting of the Pao-Ting-Fu expedition until 2:30 Saturday. One column is moving west and the other southwest. The troops marched 15 miles and encamped at Yung-Lin-Ching, meeting with no opposition. They advanced to Mao-Chang on Monday.

MONUMENT TO FOSTER.

Tribute to the Memory of the Great Composer, Unveiled at Pittsburg.
Schoolchildren Sang Songs.

Pittsburg, Sept. 13.—A monument to Stephen C. Foster, the great song composer, erected through subscriptions, raised through the instrumentality of the Pittsburg Press, was unveiled at Highland park, in the presence of thousands of people.

The following was the program carried out at the park:

"America," by Grand Chorus and Consolidated Bands, under direction of Victor Herbert.

"The Old Folks at Home".....

"Old Black Joe".....Chorus and Bands

"Old Dog Tray".....Chorus and Bands

Unveiling, by Mrs. Marion Foster Welsh, of Chicago, Only Child of the Composer.

Acceptance of Monument for the City by Director G. W. Wilson, of the Department of Public Works, in Absence of Mayor Diehl.

"Old Uncle Ned".....Chorus and Band

"Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground".....

"My Old Kentucky Home".....

"Grand American Fantasia".....Victor Herbert

Airs Introduced: "Hail Columbia," "Swanee River," "Army Signals," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "Dixie," "Red, White and Blue," Concluding with "The Star-Spangled Banner."

About 3,000 school children from Pittsburg, Allegheny and McKeesport formed

PITTSBURG'S FOSTER MONUMENT, WITH PORTRAITS OF THE SCULPTOR AND PROJECTOR.

the chorus. The Economy band, Grand Army band, of Allegheny; Second Brigade band, American Military band, of Allegheny, and Pennsylvania State band, the whole under the directorship of Victor Herbert, played. A parade preceded the ceremonies.

The monument is of granite, with figures of bronze, the design being the conception of Giuseppe Moretti, of New York. It is 14 feet in height. The established cost is $14,000. The design represents the figure of Foster seated, in deep thought, and in the act of inditing a composition. A sheet of paper, a pencil and the whole attitude of the song writer suggest his devotion to the idea under consideration. Reclining at the feet of Foster is the figure of a negro in a happy rollicking mood, symbolical of "Old Uncle Ned," one of the favorite characters of the song writer. "Old Uncle Ned" is picking his tune out on a banjo. Against the base of the upper half of the monument rests a lyre against a sweep of sculptured palms. On the granite base is a shield with the simple inscription of the name of the composer, "Stephen C. Foster," with the date of birth as "July 4, 1826," and the date of death, "January 13, 1864." Later a line is to be inscribed selected from one of the Foster melodies and possibly a further expression relating to the testimonial of appreciation by his admirers. The remains of Stephen C. Foster are interred in the family burial lot in the Allegheny cemetery nearby to the graves of his parents, to whom he always fondly turned for the affection and ways fondly turned for the affection and adoration of his "Old Folks at Home." His grave is marked by a simple white marble, embellished only with date.

OHIO IN CONGRESS

JOSEPH H. OUTHWAITE.

Joseph H. Outhwaite of Columbus was born in Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 5, 1841, and was educated in the public schools of Zanesville, and taught for two years in the high school of that city, and for three years subsequently was principal of the grammar school in Columbus. He was admitted to the bar in 1866, and practiced law at Osceola, Missouri, from 1867 to 1871, when he returned to Columbus, and became a leading attorney. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Franklin county in 1874, and re-elected in 1876, and held many local offices of trust in later years.

In 1884 he was elected as a Democrat on the tariff reform issue to the Forty-ninth congress from the Thirteenth district, Franklin, Fairfield, Hocking and Pickaway counties, and was re-elected in 1886 from the Thirteenth district, then composed of Franklin, Fairfield, Hocking and Perry; elected from the same district in 1888 to the Fifty-first, and was elected to the Fifty-second in 1890 from the Ninth district, Franklin, Madison and Pickaway, and was elected a fifth time in 1892 from the Twelfth district, Franklin and Fairfield. He played a conspicuous part in congress during the ten years of his service.

He was appointed on the board of ordnance and fortifications by President Cleveland, and still retains that position. In 1896 he disagreed with the leaders of his party on the money question, and supported John M. Palmer for the presidency on the single gold standard platform.

JACOB ROMEIS.

Jacob Romeis of Toledo was born in Weisenbach, Kingdom of Bavaria, Germany, Dec. 1, 1835. He attended the village schools until April, 1847, when he migrated with his parents to the United States, and attended the public schools in Buffalo, New York, until 1850. He removed from Buffalo to Toledo, and in 1856 engaged in railroad and shipping business. He was elected to the board of alderman of Toledo in 1874 and 1876, and was president of the board in 1877. In 1879 he was elected mayor of the city and re-elected in 1881, and again in 1883.

He was elected, as a Republican, to the Forty-ninth congress in 1884 from the Tenth district, Lucas, Erie, Ottawa and Sandusky counties, and re-elected to the Fiftieth from the Tenth district in 1886, composed of the counties of Lucas, Erie, Ottawa and Sandusky.

ELIHU S. WILLIAMS.

Captain Elihu S. Williams of Troy was born in Bethel township, Clark county, Ohio, Jan. 24, 1835. He attended the common schools and Antioch college; read law in Dayton and was admitted to the bar. He enlisted as a private soldier in the Seventy-first Ohio volunteer infantry; commissioned first lieutenant Feb. 14, 1862; promoted to captain Feb. 10, 1863, and assigned to the command of the military post at Carthage, Tennessee, where he remained until the close of the war.

He was attorney general of the Sixth judicial district of Tennessee from April, 1865, to 1867. In the latter years he was elected a member of the Tennessee house of representatives and served one term. He removed to Troy, Ohio, in January, 1875, and entered upon the practice of law, and afterward became interested in a newspaper.

He was elected to the Fiftieth congress, as a Republican, in 1886, from the Third district, Miami, Montgomery and Preble counties, and was re-elected to the Fifty-first in 1888, from the same district. At the end of his congressional terms he resumed the practice of his profession at Troy, where he is still one the most active and prominent citizens of the city.

CHARLES H. GROSVENOR.

General Charles Henry Grosvenor of Athens was born in Pomfret, Windham county, Connecticut, Sept. 23, 1833, of distinguished Revolutionary stock. His grandfather, Francis Grosvenor, having commanded the Second Connecticut regiment. His father, Peter Grosvenor, was major of the Tenth Connecticut in the war of 1812.

In 1838 he came with his father to Athens county, Ohio. School facilities were limited, and young Grosvenor was compelled to pick up an education as opportunities offered in the sparsely settled neighborhood. He managed, however, to secure a fair education, and in 1857 was admitted to the bar, and became one of the most successful lawyers in Southern Ohio.

He entered the military in July, 1861, and was mustered out in November, 1865. He was major, Lieutenant-colonel, colonel and brevet brigadier general and commanded a brigade at the battle of Nashville.

He served as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives from 1874 to 1878, and was speaker of the house of representatives during his second term. He has always been a Republican of the aggressive type. He was chosen presidential elector in 1872 and 1880, and was for many years a trustee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home at Xenia, Ohio.

He was elected to the Forty-ninth congress in 1884 from the Fourteenth district, Athens, Gallia, Meigs, Morgan and Perry counties; to the Fiftieth, in 1886, from the Fifteenth district, Athens, Meigs, Morgan, Washington and Monroe; to the Fifty-first, in 1888, from the same district; failed of a nomination, because of redistricting, in 1890, and was elected to the Fifty-third, in 1892, from the Eleventh district, consisting of Athens, Meigs, Vinton, Ross, Hocking and Perry counties, and from the same district to the Fifty-fourth, in 1894; the Fifty-fifth, in 1896, and the Fifty-sixth, in 1898. During the last 10 years of the century he was one of the most influential Republican leaders from the middle states on the floor of the house.

ISAAC H. TAYLOR.

Isaac Hamilton Taylor of Carrollton was born near New Harrisburg, Carroll county, Ohio, April 18, 1840, and was educated in the public and academic schools, studied law and was admitted to the bar, and was clerk of the court of Carroll county from January, 1870, to February, 1877.

He was elected to the Forty-ninth congress, as a Republican, in 1884, from the Eighteenth district, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson and Mahoning counties, and served one term. In 1891 he was elected a judge of the court of common pleas for the Ninth judicial district, was re-elected in 1896, and holds that position in 1899, his second term extending to 1901.

A LESSON IN HONESTY

Filipinos Will Be Given One, Said Wright.

When Senor Torrea Expressed a Fear of the Spanish System of Disbursement, He Was Assured There Would Be No Crookedness—Satisfied With Reply.

Manila, Sept. 13.—At the first public legislative session of the Filipino commission bills appropriating $1,000,000 gold from the funds of the islands for highways and bridges and $2,500 in part payment of surveying expenses were passed.

Senor Torrea, attorney general, asked for information as to the method of disbursing the appropriation, reminding the commission of Spain's practices in connection with public funds. Gen. Luke Wright, of the commission, answering the inquiry, explained that good roads for the military were an economic necessity, and that General MacArthur, as the executive, was aided by trained armed engineers. The army was thus the best and only machine for supervising ably and economically the construction of such public works. The commission, he said, desired in this way to give the Filipinos an object lesson in the honest and efficient disbursement of public funds; and this would be all the more effective because it was the army's economical and honest administration that had created the surplus and made the appropriation of $1,000,000 possible.

Senor Torres expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the reply.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED.

Horrible Stories of Killings of Missionaries and Converts—Some Missionaries Unaccounted For.

London, Sept. 13.—All the correspondents in China are sending terrible stories of the wholesale massacre of missionaries and native Christians. It is asserted that during July between 15,000 and 20,000 converts were massacred in the northern provinces. Large numbers of missionaries are still unaccounted for and small hope is entertained of their escape.

STANCHFIELD FOR GOVERNOR.

Named by New York Democrats—Coler's Name Presented.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 13.—For governor—John B. Stanchfield, of Chemung.

For lieutenant governor—William F. Mackey, of Erie.

For secretary of state—John T. Norton, of Remsen.

For comptroller—Edwin S. Atwater, of Dutchess.

For attorney-general—Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton.

For engineer and surveyor—Russell R. Stewart, of Onondaga.

This was the ticket named by the Democratic state convention. Its head was not selected without the indulgence of acrimonious personalities and a sarcastic exchange of some compliments among the leaders and supporters of Hill and Coker. But when the will of the convention had been finally registered, ex-Senator David B. Hill was first to propose the unanimous nomination of a friend of lifelong standing, John B. Stanchfield, which was taken up with unanimity. Hill had Coler's name presented, but it did no good.

MAN KILLED BY BURGLARS.

Wife and Five Children Tortured—Five Suspects Arrested.

Carey, O., Sept. 13.—W. C. Johnson was killed by burglars and his wife and five children were bound and tortured until all the money and valuables in the house were obtained. The burglars escaped and a posse is in pursuit.

Tiffin, O., Sept. 13.—Five men answering the description of the robbers were arrested at Rising Sun, taken to Fostoria and lodged in jail. They refuse to talk. Revolvers and burglar tools were found in their possession.

Pao-Ting-Fu Expedition Started.

Taku, Sept. 13.—Rain delayed the starting of the Pao-Ting-Fu expedition until 2:30 Saturday. One column is moving west and the other southwest. The troops marched 15 miles and encamped at Yung-Lu-Ching, meeting with no opposition. They advanced to Mao-Chang on Monday.

MONUMENT TO FOSTER.

Tribute to the Memory of the Great Composer, Unveiled at Pittsburgh.
Schoolchildren Sang Songs.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 13.—A monument to Stephen C. Foster, the great song composer, erected through subscriptions, raised through the instrumentality of the Pittsburgh Press, was unveiled at Highland park, in the presence of thousands of people.

The following was the program carried out at the park:

"America," by Grand Chorus and Consolidated Bands, under direction of Victor Herbert.

"The Old Folks at Home".....Chorus and Bands

Presentation of Monument to City by T. J. Keenan, Jr., Chairman Foster Memorial Committee.

Unveiling, by Mrs. Marion Foster Welsh, of Chicago, Only Child of the Composer.

"Old Uncle Ned".....Chorus and Band

"Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground".....Chorus and Bands

"My Old Kentucky Home".....Chorus and Bands

"Grand American Fantasia".....Victor Herbert

About 3,000 school children from Pittsburgh, Allegheny and McKeesport formed

PITTSBURGH'S FOSTER MONUMENT, WITH PORTRAITS OF THE SCULPTOR AND PROJECTOR.

the chorus. The Economy band, Grand Army band, of Allegheny; Second Brigade band, American Military band, of Allegheny, and Pennsylvania State band, the whole under the directorship of Victor Herbert, played. A parade preceded the ceremonies.

The monument is of granite, with figures of bronze, the design being the conception of Giuseppe Moretti, of New York. It is 14 feet in height. The established cost is $14,000. The design represents the figure of Foster seated, in deep thought, and in the act of inditing a composition. A sheet of paper, a pencil and the whole attitude of the song writer suggest his devotion to the idea under consideration. Reclining at the feet of Foster is the figure of a negro in a happy rollicking mood, symbolical of "Old Uncle Ned," one of the favorite characters of the song writer. "Old Uncle Ned" is picking his tune out on a banjo. Against the base of the upper half of the monument rests a lyre against a sweep of sculptured palms. On the granite base is a shield with the simple inscription of the name of the composer, "Stephen C. Foster," with the date of birth, "July 4, 1826," and the date of death, "January 13, 1864." Later a line is to be inscribed selected from one of the Foster melodies and possibly a further expression relating to the testimonial of appreciation by his admirers. The remains of Stephen C. Foster are interred in the family burial lot in the Allegheny cemetery nearby to the graves of his parents, to whom he always fondly turned for the affection and ways fondly turned for the affection and adoration of his "Old Folks at Home." His grave is marked by a simple white marble, embellished only with the date.

HIS QUESTIONS AT LAPORTE, IND., FULLY COVERED.

The Humbug of His Attitude as to the Philippines Fully Shows Up by the Parallel in North Carolina and Louisiana With Colored Voters.

Mr. Bryan made a speech at Laporte, Ind., on September 1. He had but one minute, and he employed it in suggesting two questions to those who defend the natural expansion of the country and the retention of the Philippines. Said he: "Ask them whether the Filipino is to be a citizen or a subject. If he is to be a citizen, he must share with us in the destinies of this nation. If he is to be a subject, we must change our form of government."

Mr. Bryan's question can be returned to himself for an answer. Are the negroes, disfranchised by the "grandfather clause" in the constitutions of Louisiana or North Carolina, citizens or subjects? They cannot be citizens, because they are not allowed the right to vote. If Mr. Bryan's dilemma is true, then they are subjects. Therefore, according to Mr. Bryan's own words, we must change our form of government.

We wish to ask Mr. Bryan whether imperialism, as we see it exemplified in North Carolina and Louisiana, is not exactly the same as that to which he objects in the Philippines? Is our policy in the Philippines fraught with any more danger to our form of government than the policy which the Democratic party is carrying into effect in the southern states? Is the disfranchisement of the negroes of the south any less a violation of that precept of the Declaration of Independence, which declares, "All governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed," than is the government we are setting up in the Philippines today?

Furthermore, every opportunity should be taken where Mr. Bryan speaks in Ohio or elsewhere, to demand of him, in the light of the above, been constitutionally disfranchised, he is still a citizen, or whether he is a subject?

In point of fact, no such dilemma exists in the Philippines as Mr. Bryan sets forth. In every town or city in the islands where the insurrection has been subdued, the Filipinos enjoy full self-government. They have elected their own presidents and other inferior officers. They have the full right of suffrage for their own government. Their own elected officers disburse the money for that locality. As much can not be said for the negroes of the south. They have no vote at all—not even for county or township officials. Mr. Bryan is simply holding up a bugaboo to frighten voters. There is no more in it than there was in the same cry in 1863 and '64 against Lincoln—a man whom Mr. Bryan now lauds.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

They Show Clearly the General Prosperity of the Nation.

One of the clearest gauges as to the general prosperity of the country, has always been in the earnings of the railroads, particularly when the reports covered the entire country. In the first half of 1899, 172 roads reported net earnings of $155,750,000, and the first half of the present year the net earnings amount to about $187,000,000. This comparison is still stronger when made and extended back five years. The gain in both gross and net earnings for five years makes a remarkable exhibit. In the first half of 1895 the gross earnings of 177 roads were $381,778,000. For the first half of 1900 the earnings of the 177 roads, although not exactly the same roads, were $611,250,000, an increase of $229,475,000. The net earnings of the same roads in 1895 were $109,800,000, and in 1900 $186,998,000, an increase of $77,182,000. Most of the roads included in this last were able to earn fixed charges and some of them dividends on their stocks in 1895.

THE LATEST.

Is That Another Effort is Being Made to Consolidate the Pottery Interests.

It is reported that President Aarons, of the Laughlin No. 2 plant, is just now engaged in an attempt to consolidate the pottery interests of the city.

Inquiry was made at several of the local plants, but the report could not be verified. However, it is admitted that the project could be carried out, provided the younger manufacturers of the city could be persuaded to go into the deal.

The old time potters, those who have been in the business since its inception, seem favorably impressed with the idea, and would not hesitate to go into the combination.

Her Timely Gift.

In common with other women, Mrs. Brown delights in a bargain, and when she observed the advertisement of a great fire and water sale in one of the department stores she repaired there without delay. There were many fine works of science, travel, history, religion and fiction to be had for a song each, but her eyes rested on a handsomely bound copy of "The Life of General Grant," and she bought it for her brother. Of course, it would not be fair to tell what she paid for it.

"The next day her brother came over to thank her. "It's fine," he said. "I haven't got very far in it yet, but I know it's going to be good. When little Jane gets along a little further in her German I'm going to have her read me a bit of it every evening. I make rather slow progress of it myself."

"In German?" gasped the giver.

"Yes," said the brother. "It's written in German, a mighty handy thing to have around the house." Since then Mrs. Brown has never bought a fire or water book without looking carefully on the inside of it.—Worcester (Mass.) Gazette.

What He Wanted For.

An inspector of Irish schools tells a good story, says the Newcastle (England) Chronicle. At a school where he made a surprise visit a little boy happened to come in for the first time and stepped up to the inspector at once.

"Sit there for the present," said the inspector, indicating the desired spot. The boy obeyed readily, and when the inspector had finished his multitudinous inquiries into the knowledge of geography, grammar and arithmetic possessed by the children he found that the boy still sat in the same spot.

"What are you waiting for, my boy?" "Please, sir, I am waiting for the present."

TWO CENTS

WITHOUT ANY RELIGIOUS RITES

The Only Persons Present at Interment Were the Undertaker and Assistants.

AN UNUSUALLY SAD CASE

The funeral of Mrs. Lichtenstein and her little daughter Mary took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the undertaking rooms of J. D. West.

It had been arranged to bury the remains some time during the afternoon, as it was impossible to keep them longer. Rev. Weary, of St. Stephen's church, was to conduct the services, but the undertaker waited until 4 o'clock in the hope that some of the relatives would appear to attend the funeral. None came, however, and the bodies were taken to Spring Grove cemetery attended only by Undertaker West and his assistants, and they were laid to rest much after the manner in vogue in heathen countries.

There have been so many stories concerning the origin of the fire and the condition of the bodies when found, and they have been of so varied a character that the authorities have determined as soon as Justice Rose returns to the city to make a thorough investigation of the case, and if there is any foundation whatever for the claim that the fire was of an incendiary nature, no stone will be left unturned to bring out the facts.

RETAIL CLERKS

Will Entertain Their Friends in a Royal Manner at Rock Springs This Evening.

The retail clerks and their many friends will dance this evening at Rock Springs and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. A large number of invitations have been issued and all who attend will have a pleasant time, as the retail clerks have proven themselves first-class entertainers.

The season at Rock Springs is rapidly drawing to a close, and a large crowd will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to spend an evening at the park with the retail clerks.

James McCaffrey Has Entered an Action Against Thomas McKenna.

Lisbon, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—James McCaffrey, of Leetonia, wants judgment against Thomas McKenna for $124.

The amount is due on a promissory note given at Leetonia in 1893, which is secured by a mortgage on lot 354.

ANDREW CARNEGIE

Has Consented to Pay for the New Presbyterian Church at Leetonia.

Through the efforts of Rev. D. A.

Collins, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Leetonia, Andrew Carnegie will donate the money to pay for the new church which is now in course of construction.

He will also purchase for them a good pipe organ. It will be remembered that the old church was burned down some months ago.

DISPOSED OF BY SQUIRE McLANE YESTERDAY.

Frank Harvey Lost His Case And John Shaffer Secured Judgment by Default.

Two cases were disposed of in the court of Justice McLane yesterday.

Frank Harvey had sued Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt for $10, a balance due for a lady's tailor-made suit, and when the evidence was all in judgment was rendered for defendant.

Mrs. Hoyt had been suddenly called away, and found it necessary to procure a new suit; Harvey had one that had been made for another party and had been paid $10 on the same, but was compelled to keep it, as the first

WILLIAM CLINE WAS TURNED OUT

He Promised to Send the Amount of His Fine to Mayor Davidson.

BUD BROOKES DIDN'T PAY

For Taking a Ride on a Street Car and Complaint Was Filed Against Him.

ALLISON'S FINE HAS BEEN PAID

William Cline the man arrested by Patrolmen Ruhe and Rose yesterday morning on a charge of intoxication, was given a hearing by Mayor Davidson in the afternoon.

He had no money, but said he had a couple of friends working on the taken aback when Officers Gill and Aufderheide conducted the reception in the most approved fashion. The city patrol is reserved exclusively for guests of Sneath's stamp, and he was taken to jail.

De Vern Coburn called at the mayor's office yesterday and paid an old fine against his friend, John Allison. John is now square with the authorities.

HIS SORE TOE.

Constable Miller has been suffering for several days with a very sore foot, a corn on the bottom of the member having bealed.

Yesterday an operation was performed by Dr. Calhoun, which was successful in every particular. The officer displayed extraordinary pluck, as the operation was a very painful one and the physician commended him warmly for his nerve.

Miller is much improved today, and will have entirely recovered in a few days.

MISS MARSHALL

Will Arrive Here Friday And Take Up the Deaconess Work in the First M. E. Church.

Miss Marshall will arrive in the city Friday from Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home at Cincinnati, and will at once take up the deaconess work in the First M. E. church.

She intends to make her future home here and her work will be that of visitation, looking after the sick and the poor and afflicted of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city.

WILL RETURN.

Rev. Clark Crawford Will Leave Next Week to Attend the Conference at Youngstown.

Rev. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, will leave next week to attend the conference which will be held at Youngstown.

The congregation of the First M. E. church has asked that Rev. Crawford be returned to this city, and there is no doubt but that the request will be granted.

POLLOCK-DAVIDSON.

Well Known People of the City Were United in Marriage Yesterday Afternoon.

John Pollock and Mrs. Emma Davidson were married yesterday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock by Rev. Edwin Weary and left on the afternoon train for a trip to Detroit.

They have many friends who will wish them much happiness.

THE FIRST PERSON

To Drive Over the New Street Were J. W. Gipner and N. G. Macrum.

J. W. Gipner and N. G. Macrum last evening drove along Princeton avenue to Jennings avenue and thence to the Calcutta road.

They were the first persons to use the new thoroughfare, which will soon take the place of the Calcutta road in that part of the city.

—Rev. O. C. Crawford and wife, of Allegheny, visited the family of A. G. Minehart, Franklin street, this week. The reverend gentleman will sail on November 20 for his future field of labor in foreign missionary work.

A STORY ABOUT ZACH ROBINSON

Now Engaged In the Hazardous Task of Painting the Immense Standpipe

Refuses to Permit Any of the Other Painters to Do the Work Because

THEY ARE ALL MARRIED MEN

The following from the Ohio State Journal in regard to Zach Robinson, who killed his wife at the Hotel Grand, in this city, a few years ago, will be of interest to many people here:

The standpipe at the penitentiary, which is used to give pressure to the water supply there, is being painted by Zacharia T. Robinson, a life man from Columbiana county. The standpipe is 150 feet high and the work of painting it is a most hazardous one.

Robinson refused to allow any of the other painters to work on the standpipe in painting the top and highest portions, and gave as a reason that they were all young men, some of whom were married, and that all would be released some time, and that in the work they would likely lose their lives. Every day for the past week Robinson can be seen on the top of the standpipe working away, apparently as self-possessed as if he were painting a garden fence and looking at that height like a small boy.

The standpipe is being painted red on top and the body black, and the work is being done in strips, starting at the top and working down. A system of ropes and pulleys is being used to suspend Robinson over the side as he works.

He was first sentenced to be electrocuted for murder and occupied the annex for several months, but was finally granted a new trial, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

AN EAST END MAN IS TAKING PHOTOS

Of the People That Are Stealing
His Apples and Says He Proposes

TO ISSUE A LARGE POSTER

Filled With Wood Cuts Showing
People In the Act of Stealing the Fruit.

NOW HAS MANY PICTURES

A gentleman who resides in the East End has been having a great deal of trouble this year with parties who have been stealing apples from his orchard, but he has hit upon a novel plan for stopping the practice, and it is safe to say he will not be bothered next year if he carries out his present intentions.

The gentleman is an amateur photographer of some ability and he has spent much of his time during the summer taking the pictures of the parties who have been stealing apples from him.

He has now in his possession quite a large collection of pictures and says that as soon as the apple season is over he intends to have wood cuts made and to issue a large poster, so that all who run may read.

The pictures were taken while the people were in the act of stealing the apples, and the gentleman says many people will be surprised when the poster appears.

"MONKEY AND PARROT."

This Was the Kind of a Time Had at the Mayor's Office Yesterday.

Seated at the mayor's office yesterday afternoon, awaiting the arrival of City Clerk Hanley, we noted a rather fine looking woman enter city hall and inquire for his honor. She was directed to the inner sanctuary, where the mayor is wont to dispense justice, entered, and closed the door upon the outside world. Comparative quietness reigned for a brief space of time, and then a sweet soprano voice was raised in accusation, resulting in Mayor Davidson vacating his office, remarking to the pencil shaver and an appreciative audience that "that damsel makes me weary."

Marshal Thompson stepped into the breach; and that's where he made a mistake, as he was accused of securing money from Mr. Dusenberry and failing to make due acknowledgement or just return of the aforesaid filthy lucre. The marshal attempted an explanation, but his powers of persuasion were unequal to the occasion, and he finally gave up in despair, remarking:

"You must be under the influence of tanglefoot to make accusations of dishonesty on the part of the mayor and myself."

And then a cyclone of language, exceedingly voluminous and diffusive, permeated the surrounding atmosphere, amid the electric current of which the marshal fled for his life.

The only remaining victim in sight was an innocent and unsophisticated journalist, connected with a down town paper, and the madame combed his ambrosial locks to the queen's taste, telling him that "reporters were always sticking their nasty noses in the business of other people."

"Madame, I desire to treat all women courteously; but you make me very tired. You would not act in this unseemly manner if you were sober, and my advice is that you will go home and sober up. You accuse me of separating you from your husband, and state that I assigned three rooms in your home domicile to him. Why, madame, I couldn't separate a hemlock plank with a cross-cut, home-made saw, let alone separate a loving, contented and happy husband and wife. Pardon me, madame, while I weep. My sympathetic heart has been lacerated by the very intimation that you could, for the fraction of a moment, deem me guilty of such cold-blooded cruelty."

As the mayor wept copiously, the heart of the incensed and angry and excited woman was apparently touched by the pathetic scene and sight, and she forgave his honor, fully and freely, making but a single claim upon him, and that was that he would use his utmost efforts to keep the incident out of the papers.

STILL TALKING.

East Liverpool and Sebring May Play Ball, But It is Very Doubtful.

The East Liverpool and Sebring base ball clubs have not yet succeeded in coming to an agreement in regard to playing a series of games for $100 a side, and the contest thus far closely resembles a Corbett-Fitzsimmons match.

Sebring now wants Carey, Miller and Patterson. Liverpool says they can have Patterson and Miller, but not Carey.

An immense amount of wind will be wasted before this is fixed up, and at the present rate the clubs will be ready to play July 4, 1901.

The Sebring team realize that they would be defeated and for that reason are causing the delay.

LOAFERS

Have Again Taken Possession of West Market Street And Should Be Moved.

After an absence extending over a period of several weeks the gang of loafers have returned to West Market street, and seem to think they are permanent fixtures on that street.

It did not take long for the mayor to break up the gang before and it should be done again, as they are a source of annoyance to the residents and pedestrians.

Trenton Pottery Notes.

Trenton Times.

A union of the ground layers is proposed to be formed tonight at Lyceum hall, No. 409 South Broad street.

The Anchor pottery is unusually busy and has more orders on hand than can be readily filled.

Much sympathy is expressed in potting circles for Michael Collins, who is ill at St. Francis hospital. Mr. Collins is suffering from a cancer and fears are entertained for his recovery.

The fall goods of the Mercer pottery include some very artistic designs and shapes.

The uniform wage scale has ceased to become an object of heated discussion for the present, and is generally regarded as having been knocked out of Trenton for good.

The Maddock's Lambertson street pottery has a long list of orders for filling.

The pottery trade in England shows some little improvement, particularly with the American branch. The Staffordshire Sentinel reports that despite the coming presidential election the trade with this country is excellent.

The City Valuation Is at Least
That Much Too High Says
a Member

OF THE EQUALIZING BOARD

State Board May Be Prevailed
Upon to Reduce It to That Extent.

The decennial board of equalization is still hard at work, but the kickers are now few and far between.

The appraisers will soon begin a personal inspection of the property in the city, as it will be impossible for them to equalize some of the property without viewing it.

The board realizes that valuations in the city are altogether too high, but they can't help it. One member of the board in commenting on the matter said that at least $1,000,000 should be taken off the total valuation, but he did not know how it could be done.

It is probable strenuous efforts will be made to have the state board reduce the appraisalment in this city.

PREPARATIONS

Are Being Made to Celebrate the Harvest Home Festival at St.
John's Church.

Preparations are in progress for celebrating the harvest home festival at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church next Sunday.

The decorations will consist of flowers and fruit of the field. The festival sermons will be preached by the pastor.

On this day the regular English evening services will be resumed.

The time of Sunday school has been changed from 1:30 to 2 p. m.

Killed by the Cars.

This morning at 2 o'clock, just south of Burlington, a short distance above Martin's Ferry, a south bound freight train on the C. & P. railroad struck and instantly killed Samuel Cochran, of Martin's Ferry, a former marshal of that town.

The deceased was about 50 years of age, and is survived by Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Edward Haughton, of Martin's Ferry. The body was taken to Martin's Ferry.

The deceased was well known here.

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

to Honestly Answer
This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of East Liverpool more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

William Terrence, fireman at engine house No. 1, says: "For some time I was annoyed with symptoms of either weakened or over-excited kidneys. I had noticed more than one recommendation made by people living in East Liverpool about Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking that if the medicine performed half what it promised it might help me, I bought a box at Larkin's drug store. They cured me."

One of Moody's Jokes.

D. L. Moody was always full of fun. He saw the comic side of things, and as a boy enjoyed putting practical jokes upon any one whom he well knew. In the rear of his Uncle Samuel's retail shoe store in Boston was a cobbler's repair kit—seat, tools, awls, etc., and the seat was, as usual, a piece of leather concavely shaped downward at its center.

One day the workman on this saucer shaped seat felt it becoming uncomfortably damp, then really moist. He rose and saw a damp spot on the seat. Supposing that a few drops of water had been accidentally dropped upon the seat before he sat down to his work, he folded an old newspaper and placed it and sat comfortably down to resume his work. But the moisture seemed strangely persistent. Rising again, he found the paper becoming soaked with water, and he stood perplexed, his hammer in one hand and the soft, wet paper in the other.

Looking this way and that in his perplexity, he soon heard a half chuckle, half snicker, which could no longer be repressed, and there behind the door was the country boy, learning how to be useful in a city shoe store, as he really and rapidly did, but taking his fun as he went along. He had placed a shallow dish of water close up to the underside of the center of the leather seat, which only touched the water when the weight of the occupant was upon it, so three or four small awl holes served his purpose for that time.—Congregationalist.

Our Endurance.

During life each member of the human body produces poison to itself. When this poison accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, which always occurs unless the muscle has an interval of rest, then will come fatigue, which is only another expression for toxic infection.

If the muscle is given an interval of rest, so that the cell can give off its waste product to keep pace with the new productions, the muscle will then liberate energy for a long time. This latter condition is what we call endurance.

Like any other ponderous and intricate machine, the body requires time to get in harmonious working order. The brain, nerves, heart and skeletal muscles must be given some warning of the work they are expected to perform. Ignorance of this fact has broken down many a young man who aspired to honors on the cinder path.

The necessity of getting all the parts of the body slowly in working order is well understood by trainers and jockeys on the race track, as is evinced by the preliminary "warming up" they give their horses, although it is doubtful if the trainers could give any physiologic reason for their custom.—Popular Science.

Witchcraft.

"The sixteenth and seventeenth centuries," said John Fiske, "were the flourishing ages of the witchcraft delusion. Witchcraft, in the early ages, was considered one of the greatest of crimes, as much so as murder, robbery or any other serious offense against the law, and the belief in it was shared by the whole human race until the latter part of the seventeenth century."

"In England, in 1664, two women were tried before Sir Matthew Hale, charged with bewitching several girls and a baby, and they were put to death, for at that time the evidence seemed perfectly rational. In 1615, in Genoa, 500 people were burned to death on the charge of witchcraft. It was the proud boast of a noted executioner in northern Italy, at this time, that in 15 years he had assisted in burning 900 persons charged with sorcery. In Scotland, between 1560 and 1600, 8,000 people were put to death, an average of 200 a year. The last execution for witchcraft in England took place in 1712, in Scotland in 1722, in Germany in 1749 and in Spain in 1781."

American Steel For England.

From Philadelphia a ship has just sailed for England, with steel billets, sent to English manufacturers for making tin plates, and also with structural steel and beams to be used in building factories in Manchester and other English cities, and all of it made in Pittsburgh. This ship has a year's orders ahead for this line of business. Upon the delivery of the present cargo the English manufacturers will for the first time use American steel in making tin plates. Never did the like occur until McKinley came in.

MABEL MCKINLEY

NOW MRS. BAER

The President's Niece United to the Young Physician, With Pretty
Ceremonies, at Somerset.

Somerset, Pa., Sept. 13.—Miss Mabel McKinley, the president's niece, by ceremonies in the drawing room of the McKinley residence, in this city, became the bride of Dr. Hermanus Baer. The little ribbon girls, Miss Matilda Snyder, a niece of the bride, and Miss Lucy Scull, a niece of the groom, in advance of the wedding procession indicated the approach to the drawing room by unfolding the wide white ribbon and so stepped up on the porch at the foot of the stairs. The ushers, Col. W. C. Brown, William Fairman, R. C. Smith, Frank A. Munsey, Dr. Frank Hanan and John R. Leslie, had already stationed themselves at various points downstairs to assist the guests in finding their places. Following the ribbon girls was Miss Katherine Endsley, a niece of the bride, who carried the bridal bouquet. Then came Master Wilbur Schall, a nephew of the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a silver tray. Then followed the groom and best man, Lewis H. Baer, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, came after and behind her was the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was met by the groom between the drawing room door and the marriage bell in the bay window, under which Dr. Morgan was awaiting them. The father of the bride stepped a little to one side and Dr. Morgan at once began the reading of the Episcopal marriage service.

With a serious face and in a tone heard all through the rooms of the lower floor of the house in which the guests were standing Dr. Morgan asked:

"Who gives this woman in marriage?" Abner McKinley then took the bride's right hand in his own and tenderly placed it in the right hand of the groom.

Then looking straight into the eyes of the contracting couple the minister repeated the questions of the service to each of which Dr. Baer and Miss Mabel McKinley, in a full and clear voice, responded. At the conclusion of the ceremony the groom kissed the bride and first to extend their congratulations were President and Mrs. McKinley, who embraced them. They were followed by Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, the parents of the bride. President and Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Abner McKinley occupied chairs directly behind and within a few feet of the bride couple. There were also seated Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Sarah Duncan, sisters of the president, and Mrs. A. J. Endsley, the grandmother of the bride. The congratulations of the guests consumed considerable time. This was followed by the wedding dinner, which was served in the marquette tent on the lawn, save those who sat down at the bride's table, which was located in the dining-room. At the bride's table were the bride and groom, President and Mrs. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Baer, parents of the groom, Governor and Mrs. William A. Stone, Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor; Mr. Lewis H. Baer, the best man; Rev. Dr. Morgan, Col. W. C. Brown and the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. A. J. Endsley.

Among those at the table in the marquette tent were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Crownshield, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cheney, Colonel and Mrs. Hines, Frank A. Munsey, Frederick S. Parker, Herman Aaron, Secretary G. B. Cortelyou, Dr. P. M. Rixey, General and Mrs. Ludington, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hawk, Charles R. Moore, Mrs. Madison Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Helen McKinley, Miss Sarah Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sullivan Endsley.

The musical program rendered by Toerge's orchestra, of Pittsburgh, was quite elaborate.

The gowns of each lady of the wedding party and the members of the McKinley family vied with each other in elaborateness. The gown of the bride of which so much has already been written was a masterpiece of the dressmaker's art. It was simple in design, but at the same time exquisitely fitted and was the subject of much comment on the part of each member of the party. Mrs. William McKinley wore a magnificent high neck gown of white lace over pink satin with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Abner McKinley's gown was a beautiful creation of silver gray satin faced crepe de chine. Miss Nora Jarvis, the maid of honor, appeared in a pink crepe de chine gown. Miss Grace McKinley was attired in a light blue decolletee, one of the most beautiful costumes seen. Mrs. Madison B. Kennedy, who is prominent in society circles of New York and Chicago, wore an imported gown of lace over white satin. The waist was a mass of sequin pearls and as ornaments she wore a diamond necklace and pendant and a necklace of pearls. The sisters of the president, Mrs. Sarah Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley, were in black, the former's dress being of real lace. Mrs. Governor Stone was dressed in white satin and lace garnished with yellow pansies. It was a beautiful Parisian gown with short sleeves and low cut bodice. Here and there were touches of black velvet adding to the effect. Miss Rachel Aiken, of Pittsburgh, wore a white silk trimmed with garlands of pink flowers. Mrs. Edward Blaine Scull, of Pittsburgh, wore a light blue fancy silk gown garnished with black and pink panels of velvet. Mrs. Colonel Haines, wife of the commandant at West Point, was gowned in white satin over which was white lace. She wore diamond ornaments.

Baltimore and Ohio Statement For August Depressed That Stock—Movement of Some Others.

New York, Sept. 13.—Very little can be said of such a market as that of Wednesday beyond the chronicle of the movements of individual stocks. The most mercurial specialties, namely People's Gas, Sugar and Brooklyn Transit maintained their poor pre-eminence in the market. But the range of their fluctuations was extended to reach a point only with palpable effort. Before the market closed prices of the three had been dragged back to very near Tuesday night's level. In the railroad list there was some demand for Northern Pacific at an extreme advance of a point, apparently on the large increase in earnings reported yesterday for the first week in September. This seemed to sustain other railroad stocks, even St. Paul recovering sharply, in spite of the heavy decline in its first week in September earnings. The Baltimore & Ohio statement for August depressed that stock, owing to the large increase in the outlay for operating expenses, which served to pull down the net earnings. The anthracite coalers were heavy as the period approached for the declaration of the miners' final decision on the strike. Reading first preferred was off a point at one time and New Jersey Central two. The imminence of a strike probably has a wider influence than the special weakness in the coalers would indicate. The recent large output of coal is supposed to leave the companies in a position to stand a curtailment of production very well, but the cessation of mining with anything like unanimity in the anthracite field is bound to have far-reaching consequence in many branches of business. London bought stocks here again Wednesday and helped the opening rise, the London market being encouraged by belief in the Boer collapse and seemingly by the hope that a renewal of the South African gold supply will soon help to relieve the London money market. Notwithstanding the downward course of sterling exchange, opinions are strangely persistent in some quarters that gold will soon go out to London. Currency continues to move freely toward the south and west and the sub-treasury is taking small sums from the market with the cessation of the transfer of Pacific coast gold and the practical discontinuance of operations under the government refunding law. Local money rates are slightly firmer in tone as a consequence. Wednesday's bond market was barren of any feature. Total sales, par value, $775,000.

United States 5s registered, advanced 1/4, the refunding 2s when issued, registered, 1/4, and do. coupon 1/4 per cent in the bid price. The 3s coupons declined 1/4.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Wheat on Wednesday was firm on strong cables and smaller northwest receipts, but succumbed later to more favorable weather and large primary receipts, closing weak. October 1/4c lower. Corn closed 1/4c and oats 1/4c down. Provisions closed but little changed. The crippled wire service made all markets dull.

Roosevelt In South Dakota.

Brookings, S. D., Sept. 13.—Governor Roosevelt's special train arrived here. Many receptions took place on the way and numerous speeches were made from the platform of the car and from specially arranged street stands around which the inhabitants of the towns crowded. An outdoor meeting was held in a tent near the courthouse grounds at this place. A torchlight procession escorted the governor's carriage through the streets of the city.

Sons of Veterans.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 13.—At the nineteenth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans the officers elected were: Commander-in-chief, E. A. Alexander, Reading, Pa.; senior vice commander, A. H. Kawitzer, Omaha, Neb.; junior vice commander, Charles S. Davis, Washington, D. C.; consul, Dan C. Cable, Nelsonville, O.; C. J. Post, Grand Rapids, Mich., and James A. Adams, Atlantic City, N. J. Providence, R. I., was selected as the place of holding the next meeting.

The funniest thing in this campaign is the absolute silence of Mr. Bryan as to the things he believed of most importance four years ago.

Mr. Bryan's speeches are believed by himself to convince his hearers. The cold fact, however, is he only makes them sick.

It's a Serious
Thing

For a woman to come to that period known as change of life. It is almost always a period of suffering, and the derangement of mind and body is some times so great that the family life is utterly marred by the unhappy wife and mother. At such a time every woman needs just the help that is given by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It works with Nature, soothes the nerves by nourishing them, and cures diseases of the delicate organs. In brief, it makes weak women strong; sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "Before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I thought I would lose my mind. Now I can work every day and do not suffer. I recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of life. It is the best medicine I have ever found."

Every woman should send for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

SWEET CHARITY.

Don't fail to respond to the call of sweet charity. The need is great for funds for the sufferers in Texas. Now is the accepted hour. Let your contributions be sent in without delay.

BASE BALL.

The Pittsburg club seems to be desirous of reaching the much coveted berth of first place in the race. The lads have been playing superb ball of late. Jesse Tannehill carried off the honors yesterday and saved the game. His double header was a dandy. Pittsburg is very proud of its club at the present time.

CHINA.

As the full knowledge of the atrocities perpetrated in China against our missionaries and the native converts come to light, the apologists for the savages should hide their heads or else take steamer and go over the big pond and join their friends the Boxers. We have no earthly use for such creatures on this side of the water.

THE GALVESTON HORROR.

The conditions in Texas show an appalling calamity. There is no sensational work connected with the last reports. The ghastly facts stand out in bold relief. Liverpool, England, makes immediate contribution of ten thousand dollars. Our own people will give unstintingly when they realize the full horror of the situation. Life seems to be held very cheaply. Pestilence will follow the flood if heroic measures are not taken at once. General McKibben will bring order from chaos.

LOOTING THE DEAD.

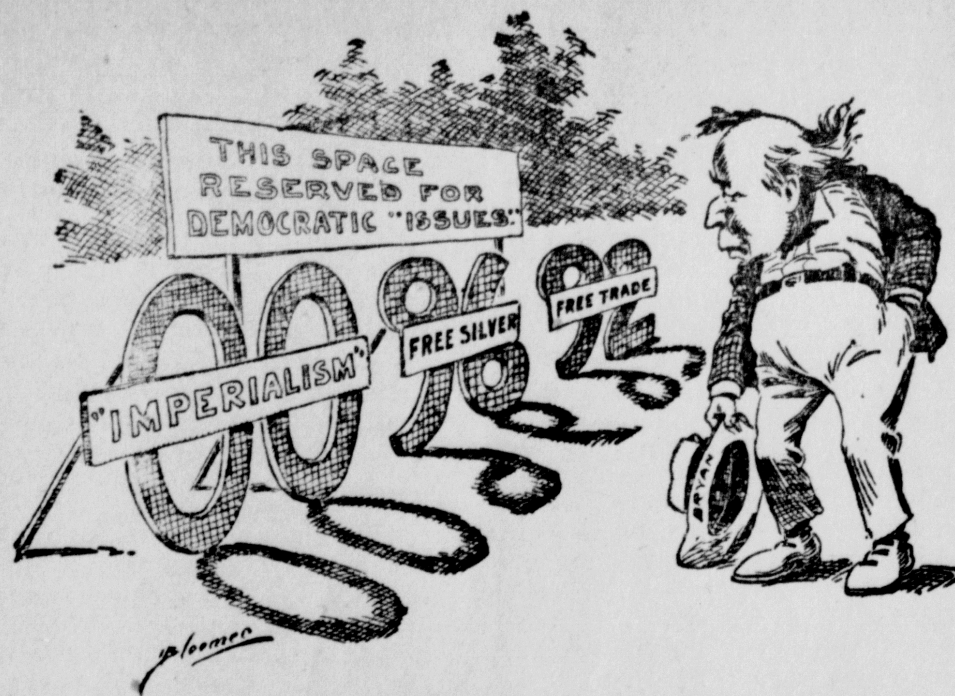

If the reports from Galveston be true respecting the looting and mutilation of the dead, affairs must be in an awful condition. Swift punishment is apparently falling upon the ghouls. Incensed citizens first took the law in their own hands and executed judgment with prompt decision. The police authorities afterwards assumed charge, and now the power of the military arm of the nation has stepped in. It seems impossible that beings in human form could act as these ghouls are reported to have done.

CHANGE FRONT.

It is a difficult thing to do when in the face of a foe and in the midst of a hot battle—a struggle for victory and supremacy. But it now seems the only alternative for William Jennings Bryan and his followers. "Anti-imperialism" has lost its power as a battle cry or slogan. In fact it has become a "boomerang" against the silver Democracy and is creating consternation in their ranks. The "militarism" bugaboo wont scare the nation a little bit. Our soldiers are citizen soldiers, and when they doff the uniform they step into business life and civil pursuits as if they had never known how to load and fire a rifle or wield a sabre. This was true of the "millions" of men at the close of our terrible civil war, and it will be true of the thousands of brave and gallant men who are now doing stern duty under Old Glory in the Philippines and in China. The great mass of the voters of the United States love and honor and respect the brave men who respond to the call of arms in the hour of emergency. Bryan's political star reached its zenith some 30 days since, and it is slowly but surely declining and setting behind the western hills.

BOOZE.

Intoxicants claim victims very fast of late in this city of East Liverpool. Men and women in a state of drunkenness are very common sights upon the streets of the municipality. Yesterday afternoon a woman, claiming decency and respectability, staggered along one of our principal thoroughfares. Last evening a brawny, stalwart, fine looking man staggered down street past the News Review office, by the side of his wife, and for almost every step taken he uttered a horrible oath. Men have been drunk lately in this city when they should have been in attendance at the funeral of those whom they had sworn to love, cherish and protect. Of a truth we are bearing an awful burden of sin in consequence of the open saloon in our midst. Where stand you, my neighbor and friend, Democrat, Republican, Populist or Prohibitionist? You must be for or against. There is no middle ground. God will hold the reins of judgment. We are not your judges. In the sight of the Master are your skirts clear of the blood of your brother? There be no politics in the matter. It is common ground for common decency and common humanity. The liquor dealer and saloon keeper does not care a baubee for Democracy or Republicanism. He is after the dollars; and he will bury his country and his country's honor in an ocean of misery in order that he may obtain dollars. This is a plain statement of fact, and you know it. Have you the courage of your convictions? Dare you stand upright, like a man should, and openly declare your undying enmity to the accursed liquor traffic?

Shops May be Moved.

Steubenville Gazette.
 A Cleveland & Pittsburg official said last night:
 "I would not be surprised to see the shops locate at Mingo Junction to do work for both roads. The C. & P. head officials have been sighting and figuring around in the locality of Mingo for some time. They are crowded for space at Wellsville."

Divided the Cash.

Yellow Cross company, U. R. K. of P., held a meeting to determine what should be done with the $200 prize money obtained at East Liverpool on July 4 and the $1,000 at Detroit. It was voted that the 39 members be given $30 each, and that the remainder be placed in the treasury. Alliance Leader.

Married at New Brighton.

Made an Arrest.

James Boyle was arrested by Patrolman Woods just before noon today. The man is about 80 years of age, was slightly inebriated and the officers feared he would hurt himself. He was taken to jail in the patrol and will probably be allowed to go when he gets sober.

Among the aborigines of Australia the most common form of punishment less than death is the spearing of the offender through different parts of the body.

IN LESS THAN THREE MONTHS

The Independent Telephone Company Will Have Connection With Pittsburg.

IN A VERY SHORT TIME

Sept. 12, 1900.

I have had very many inquiries from the subscribers to our telephone system, in regard to our Pittsburg connection, but until today I have not been able to give any definite answer as to how soon such a connection will be made. However, I spent yesterday in Pittsburg looking after our matters in that city, and find that the Pittsburg & Allegheny Telephone company is very pleasantly located on the corner of Seventh avenue and Fountain street with a very large and commodious four-story building wherein their central switchboard is now set and connected to the underground work, ready for business.

They have also about one thousand 'phones on the walls in the business houses of that city, and are putting them in at a rate of fifty and sixty per day. Connected with this central building are three other buildings for substations, one being located in Allegheny with a very large switchboard, also ready for business. Two of them being on the Pittsburg side, making them four buildings with four separate switchboards for the Pittsburg-Allegheny proposition.

They are using a full copper metallic central energy long distance system and I am assured that they will be ready to connect with our lines at the state line, some time during the latter part of November or the first of December, and, judging by the progress they are making, I see no reason why this will not be done.

This letter is written especially to inform the subscribers to the Columbiana Co. Telephone system, who have much business with Pittsburg people, that the Independent Company in Pittsburg is not sleeping, but that it is pushing forward as rapidly as possible, and that, in a very few months, service will be given from Cleveland through to Pittsburg and on to Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

THEY COULD NOT AROUSE CENTRAL

Drivers Bailey and Bentley Tell
Their Story of the Fire
Tuesday Night.

TRIED HARD TO TELEPHONE

To the Department and Much Valuable Time Was Lost
In the Effort.

BOYS WENT TO THE STATION

It is just possible that the catastrophe which occurred on Franklin street yesterday morning could have been avoided.

John Bailey, stable boss at the ice plant, says he came down the alley from his home opposite the works, and the smoke almost blinded him, and without a moment's hesitation he grabbed the key to the business office, which hung in a convenient spot in the engine room, and working his way to the office, attempted to telephone to the fire station, but that it was impossible to arouse any one in either exchange. Bailey says he rang both phones a number of times, but received no answer.

He left the office and went back to the factory. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bentley had been up almost all night with a sick child and saw the smoke almost immediately.

Mr. Bentley is an employe of the ice plant and he always carries a key to the office.

When his attention was attracted by the smoke he says he lost no time in hastening across the tracks to the office, intending to send in an alarm by telephone. He arrived only a few minutes after Bailey had been there, and although he and a colored man rang both telephones, he says they received no response to their repeated efforts.

This all occurred before there was a sign of fire about the building, nothing but smoke being visible. Some time after George Brown and another colored boy had started for the fire station on a run Bailey says he made another attempt to arouse the people in the telephone exchanges, and this time, long after the department should have been on the ground, he succeeded in having the connection made, but by this time Brown and his companion had arrived at the fire station and the department was just leaving.

It is estimated that a delay of at least 20 minutes was occasioned by the inability of the men to send an alarm by telephone, and that in the case of a fire of this character 20 minutes would amount to a great deal.

Manager Montgomery was seen to-day and stated that it might be possible the calls were not answered, as it was a bad night for the telephone lines.

Mr. Montgomery states that on account of the wind the drops were falling continually, so that it was impossible to tell whether it was a call or the wind that caused them to drop. It was also impossible to answer them all.

Manager Swaney, of the Bell company, was out of the city, but the party in charge stated that their phone at the ice plant is a desk phone, and it might have been possible that the parties did not know how to use it. He also stated that the telephone might have been out of order.

A LECTURE.

Mrs. F. D. Palmer Presented the Cause of the Freedmen Last Evening.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church had a rare treat last night in listening to Mrs. F. D. Palmer present the cause of the freedmen in our country.

Mrs. Palmer is thoroughly devoted to her work, having been connected with it as secretary of the board of freedmen for a number of years.

Before that, during the life of her husband, who was a medical missionary, they lived and worked in a foreign field.

Mrs. Palmer illustrated her lecture with a map, showing the location of the schools for educating the colored girls in the south, but numerous as they are, they are inadequate to the needs of the rapidly increasing race.

Mrs. Palmer was entertained at the home of Mrs. Dr. Clark. She left this morning to continue the work in the state of Illinois.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

WANT ACTION TAKEN.

East End Residents Think the Board of Health Should Test the Milk.

A number of East Enders are anxious that the board of health do something in regard to the run through the pasture by the school house.

Dairymen pasture their cows there and then sell the milk, and it is feared that, considering the condition of the water the cows are drinking, the milk cannot be pure and wholesome.

The matter was reported to the health board some time ago, and the case was dropped, with merely viewing the situation.

The Cow Got Out.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning two ladies called on the East End authorities and said that a cow was roaming at will in their garden. It was turned over to Officer Hamilton, who had to milk the cow and find the owner. It was found to belong to Mr. Lake.

The gentleman was not to blame in the matter, as he is very particular to keep his fences in good condition, but the recent severe wind had blown a big tree down on the fence, breaking a hole in it.

No damage claims were made, so the cow was returned to Mr. Lake and the matter dismissed.

He May be Dead.

It is reported that Rose, the Italian, who was so badly burned, died last night. An attempt was made to ascertain the truth in the matter, but nothing definite can be learned.

Dr. Noble, the railroad surgeon, called last night and thought there was some hope of his recovery, but he had not heard from his patient this morning.

Went to Wheeling.

Among the East Enders who are taking in the Wheeling fair are Dr. Davis, Dr. Mowan, Harry and Ed Herbert, E. J. Owens, Michael Kerr, Lawson and Tom Hendershot, Sam Dixon, George, Lemon and Tom Ramsey.

Sprained His Wrist.

Ed Herbert, playing with a child the other day in running after it, fell on his wrist and sprained it very badly.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS GAVE IT TO SALOONISTS.

Refused to Admit Them to the Order
by a Practically Unanimous Vote.

The Catholic Knights of Ohio gave the liquor traffic a body blow Wednesday. The Catholic Knights are holding their annual convention at Army and Navy hall, Cleveland. The society is organized for insurance purposes, and up to the present time has rejected saloon keepers as bad risks.

A few months ago branch 16, located in Cincinnati, started an agitation in favor of the admission of saloonists. The different branches were canvassed, and the matter was brought to the attention of the executive committee. Thence it was carried to the state convention.

When the proposition to change the laws for the benefit of the liquor dealer was read Wednesday it brought out a storm of protests, led by Dr. Lawless, of Toledo, who showed many reasons why men who sell liquor are bad risks for insurance companies. Frequent reference was made to the moral side of the question, the statement being made that the church was against the liquor traffic.

When a vote was taken it was nearly unanimous against the admission of saloon keepers. Apparently not more than three or four votes out of 900 were in favor of the saloonist.

After the defeat of the measure an effort was made to compromise by permitting members to engage in the saloon business after they had belonged to the order 10 years. The vote was simply a repetition of the first.

The convention closed late Wednesday afternoon.

THIEVES SHOT DEAD.

Seven Negro Vandals Killed at Galveston.

Mayor Jones Estimated the Number of Dead Victims of the Storm In and About the City at 5,000—Armed Men Patrol the Ruined Districts.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 13 (via Texas City and Houston).—Mayor Jones estimated the dead in and about Galveston at about 5,000.

At a meeting of the relief committee reports were received from the various wards. The chairman called for armed men to assist in getting labor to bury the dead and clear the wreckage and arrangements were made to supply this demand.

The situation in the city is that there is plenty of volunteers for this service, but an insufficiency of arms. There have been two or three small riots, but the officers have managed to quell them. The committee rejected the proposition of trying to pay for work, letting the laborers secure their own rations. It was decided to go ahead impressing men into service if necessary, issuing orders for rations only to those who work or were unable to work. All of the ward chairmen reported the imperative need of disinfectants. A committee was appointed to sequester all the disinfectants in the city, including the lime which escaped wetting and to obtain more. Houston was called upon for a large of lime.

Dan Henderson announced that Mr. Van Vleck, the general master of the Southern Pacific, authorized the committee to draw on that company for $5,000. Mr. Vleck returned to Houston on the tug June to send a large load of supplies.

Destitute persons who have relatives to go elsewhere will be furnished with credentials by the relief committee and will be taken to Texas City free of charge and carried by the Galveston, Houston & Henderson to Houston free. Mr. Van Vleck is arranging transportation for them from Houston to the points whither they are destined.

Alderman McMasters took charge of the work at the water works. The machinery has been cleared of the debris and the pipes found to be badly damaged, and plumbers, steam fitters and boiler makers are at work on them. Mr. McMasters said he thinks it will be possible to turn water into the mains today.

The city is patrolled by about 2,000 police officers, special officers, soldiers and deputy sheriffs. Orders were issued to the soldiers and police to kill any person caught in the act of robbing the dead. Seven negro vandals were discovered and paid the penalty of their crime with their lives. They were shot dead and their bodies carted away with dead victims of the storm.

No liquor is permitted to be sold under any circumstances unless ordered by the chairman of one of the committees or by a physician who must state that it is to be used for medicinal purposes. All persons not having business on the streets after dark must be identified before they will be allowed to pass. Unless identification is forthcoming they are arrested. No person is allowed to work in or about any building unless he has a written permit signed by the chief of police or deputy chief. No person is permitted to carry furniture or other property through the streets unless he has a written permit from the proper authority.

The police department has issued strict orders and these orders will be enforced to the letter to clear the city of all the outside sporting element. Detectives from Houston and Dallas have arrived here. No gambling is permitted and any violation of this rule is prosecuted to the fullest extent.

Professor Buckner, of the Buckner Orphans' home, of Dallas, arrived here and at once went to the city hall. He offered to throw the doors of his establishment wide open for the orphans of Galveston and announced that he was ready to care for about 100 to 150 of the children.

QUAY CANDIDATES NAMED.

The Result Will Be Independent Opponents in Some Philadelphia Districts—Nominees For Congress.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—Republican county, judicial, congressional, senatorial and representative conventions were held here. The city treasurer's convention named J. Hampton Moore, secretary to Mayor Ashbridge, who had no opposition. Jacob Singer was unanimously nominated for registrar of wills, and Hon. Thomas K. Finletter was renominated without opposition for common pleas court judge.

The vigorous contest in the Fifth senatorial district between William H. Berklebach, the organization candidate, and Former Speaker of the House Harry F. Walton, was practically ended at the primaries, when a large majority of Berklebach delegates were elected. Walton declined to go into the convention.

In the legislative district contests the administration forces were generally successful.

Independent contests in several districts will be the inevitable outcome of these contests for the legislature based upon the charges of fraud in conducting the primary elections.

Following are the nominees for congress:

Second—Robert Adams, Jr.
Third—Henry Burk.
Fourth—James R. Young.
Fifth—Edward De V. Morrell.

A STRIKE DECLARED.

Pennsylvania Anthracite Miners Told to Quit Monday.

BIG MONEY LOSSES EXPECTED.

Officers of the Union Estimate They Have a Cash Balance of $1,000,000, With Which to Fight—Some of the Grievances of the Men.

Indianapolis, Sept. 13.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, declared a strike in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, to take effect next Monday. The operators have stuck to their refusal to arbitrate.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—The mine employes in the anthracite district of Pennsylvania number about 145,000. The membership of the union is not known to a certainty, but the leaders claim that about 80 per cent of the miners are organized. The union men do not anticipate any difficulty in inducing the unorganized miners to strike.

The coal basins are distributed throughout several counties, the more important workings being located in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Schuylkill, Carbon and Northumberland counties. The average production from the entire district is about 75,000,000 tons a year.

The closing of the mines is expected to reduce the regular coal production about 75 per cent, leaving free only the Reading Coal & Iron Company's production of about 20.5 per cent of the total output of the region, and about 5.65 per cent of the Lehigh valley's production. Should the strike continue over a period of two months the loss in wages, it was estimated, will amount to about $8,400,000; loss to railroads, about $20,000,000, and loss to mine operators, about $20,000,000. Officers of the miners' union estimate that the organization has a cash balance of $1,000,000 in the treasury with which to conduct the strike.

In their demands the miners ask the correction of many evils, the more important of which are the following:

Abolition of the company stores, reduction in the price of powder to $1.50 a keg, abolition of company doctors, semi-monthly payment of wages, abolition of the sliding scale, wages paid in cash, 2,240 pounds to the ton, an advance of 20 per cent in wages less than $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 a day, that all classes of day labor now receiving $1.50 and not exceeding $1.75 shall receive 15 per cent over present wages, that all day labor now receiving $1.75 shall be advanced 10 per cent, that no miner shall have at any time more than one breast, gang or other class of work, and shall get only his legal share of cars.

CHAFFEE IS READY.

At Word From the President He Will Quit Peking—Li to Be Protected.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The question of withdrawing the American troops at once from Peking is now before the president and a speedy decision is expected and required. The action of the French government as reported by cable dispatches in joining Russia in orders for the withdrawal of troops has brought about the contingency touched upon in the reply to Russia in the following language:

"The result of these considerations is that unless there is such a general expression by the powers in favor of continued occupation as to modify the views expressed by the government of Russia and lead to a general agreement for continued occupation, we shall give instructions to the commander of the American forces in China to withdraw our troops from Peking after due conference with the other commanders as to time and manner of withdrawal."

General Chaffee was made acquainted with the attitude of the government, and was directed to hold himself in readiness to withdraw his troops. The sending of further supplies to him has been stopped, and he now awaits the signal from Washington to begin his movement. The decision of this government was announced to facilitate Li Hung Chang's passage from Shanghai to Peking. Later it was announced that Consul General Goodnow had reported that Li would leave Shanghai next Friday for Tien Tsin. His means of transportation are not known, but he may have a United States vessel if such a thing is absolutely necessary to his reaching Tien Tsin. Possibly negotiations may be conducted there.

Meanwhile the state department is doing its best to force the Chinese government, through Li Hung Chang, to restore peace in the provinces and cease outrages upon American citizens, which have been continued up to the present day.

VESSELS FOUNDERED.

Lives Lost in a Great Gale on the Lakes—Many Other Ships Damaged.

Cleveland, Sept. 13.—The tail end of the West Indian hurricane, which swept over Lake Erie, proved to have been the most disastrous storm that has visited this section in several years. The wind at one time attained a velocity of 60 miles an hour, and it was then blowing directly from the west, having practically a clear sweep of the whole lake.

The John B. Lyon, a 255 foot steamer, owned by J. C. Gilchrist, of this city, foundered about five miles off Conneaut, O., and all but two of her crew of 16 were lost. The schooner Dundee sank about 15 miles off this port and the cook, a woman, was drowned, the master and crew escaping on a raft.

Other steamers were damaged and some had a hard time making different ports.

THAT SILVER PLANK.

Why Did Bryan Insist on Having It If It Don't Count?

Why did Bryan coerce the Democratic convention into putting free silver in the Kansas City platform twice—one in the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, and once in a new resolution declaring for it in even more emphatic terms? Did he do this in dead earnest, or just for fun? If he meant it, does not any advocate of Bryan disgrace his candidate who says that Bryan means nothing by this double declaration, except to deceive the voters?

Via Pennsylvania Lines, Account the Exposition.

The dates on which excursion tickets to Pittsburg will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines this year, account the Exposition are as follows: Thursdays, September, 6, 13, 20 and 27, and October 4, 11 and 18. The rate will be single fare for round trip, plus 25 cents to cover admission coupon to the Exposition.

Excursion tickets will be sold at that rate from Dennison, Ohio; Cadiz, Ohio; Chester, W. Va.; Wheeling, W. Va.; Washington, Pa. and intermediate ticket stations on the Southwest system; and from Massillon, O.; Ash-tabula, O.; Erie, Pa.; Stoneboro, Pa.; New Philadelphia, O.; Powhatan, O., and intermediate ticket stations on the Northwest system. Excursion tickets, including admission to the Exposition, will not be sold for less than 75 cents.

The return limit on all tickets will be three days, including date of sale. The Pittsburg Exposition will be greater and grander this season than ever before. The popular features of former years will be retained, and many new ones will be added, including A Day in the Alps; Jim Key, the marvelous Educated Horse; A Crystal Maze; A Mexican Village; special exhibits of the products of the entire world from the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.

Music will be furnished by the world's leading musical organizations. The famous Banda Rossa, Italy's greatest musical organization, will appear at the Exposition Sept. 5 to 15; Emil Paur, with the New York Metropolitan Opera House orchestra, will be here Sept. 17 to 22; Damrosch's New York Symphony orchestra of 50 pieces will be the musical attraction Oct. 1 to Oct. 13; Sousa and his great band, direct from triumphs in Europe, will fill two engagements at the Expo., the first from Sept. 24 to Sept. 29, and the second from Oct. 15 to Oct. 20, closing the Exposition on the latter date.

Information concerning tickets, rates, time of trains, etc., will be furnished upon application to Pennsylvania Lines ticket agents in territory mentioned.

FOREIGN VOTERS.

Chairman Jones Offered an Insult to Them in Public.

Keep careful track of the time, the place and the occasion of the remark by the present chairman of the Democratic national committee, Senator Jones of Arkansas, in these words:

"Hundreds of thousands of ignorant foreigners who were here taking bread out of the mouths of honest labor, voted at the last election at the dictation of McKinley's supporters. These foreigners comprised fully one-half of the number of votes received by McKinley."

This language was used in a set speech to the Arkansas legislature, at Little Rock, January 20, 1897, thanking them for his third election to the United States senate. In that he discussed Bryan's defeat the previous November, speaking as the chairman then, as now, of the Democratic national committee and the head of the management of the Bryan campaign. There is no escaping his responsibility for this insult to all foreign voters, which we give as it was printed on the day after its delivery, as reported in the Arkansas Gazette, the principle Democratic paper of his state, and the organ of the Democratic party.

A LESSON IN HONESTY

Filipinos Will Be Given One, Said Wright.

1,000,000 FOR GOOD ROADS.

When Senor Torrea Expressed a Fear of the Spanish System of Disbursement, He Was Assured There Would Be No Crookedness—Satisfied With Reply.

Manila, Sept. 13.—At the first public legislative session of the Filipino commission bills appropriating $1,000,000 gold from the funds of the islands for highways and bridges and $2,500 in part payment of surveying expenses were passed.

Senor Torrea, attorney general, asked for information as to the method of disbursing the appropriation, reminding the commission of Spain's practices in connection with public funds. Gen. Luke Wright, of the commission, answering the inquiry, explained that good roads for the military were an economic necessity, and that General MacArthur, as the executive, was aided by trained armed engineers. The army was thus the best and only machine for supervising ably and economically the construction of such public works. The commission, he said, desired in this way to give the Filipinos an object lesson in the honest and efficient disbursement of public funds; and this would be all the more effective because it was the army's economical and honest administration that had created the surplus and made the appropriation of $1,000,000 possible.

Senor Torres expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the reply.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED.

Horrible Stories of Killings of Missionaries and Converts—Some Missionaries Unaccounted For.

London, Sept. 13.—All the correspondents in China are sending terrible stories of the wholesale massacre of missionaries and native Christians. It is asserted that during July between 15,000 and 20,000 converts were massacred in the northern provinces. Large numbers of missionaries are still unaccounted for and small hope is entertained of their escape.

STANCHFIELD FOR GOVERNOR.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 13.—For governor—John B. Stanchfield, of Chemung.

For lieutenant governor—William F. Mackey, of Erie.

For secretary of state—John T. Norton, of Remsen.

For comptroller—Edwin S. Atwater, of Dutchess.

For treasurer—John B. Judson, of Fulton.

For attorney-general—Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton.

For engineer and surveyor—Russell R. Stewart, of Onondaga.

This was the ticket named by the Democratic state convention. Its head was not selected without the indulgence of acrimonious personalities and a sarcastic exchange of some compliments among the leaders and supporters of Hill and Croker. But when the will of the convention had been finally registered, ex-Senator David B. Hill was first to propose the unanimous nomination of a friend of lifelong standing, John B. Stanchfield, which was taken up with unanimity. Hill had Coler's name presented, but it did no good.

MAN KILLED BY BURGLARS.

Wife and Five Children Tortured—Five Suspects Arrested.

Carey, O., Sept. 13.—W. C. Johnson was killed by burglars and his wife and five children were bound and tortured until all the money and valuables in the house were obtained. The burglars escaped and a posse is in pursuit.

Tiffin, O., Sept. 13.—Five men answering the description of the robbers were arrested at Rising Sun, taken to Fostoria and lodged in jail. They refuse to talk. Revolvers and burglar tools were found in their possession.

Pao-Ting-Fu Expedition Started.

Taku, Sept. 13.—Rain delayed the starting of the Pao-Ting-Fu expedition until 2:30 Saturday. One column is moving west and the other southwest. The troops marched 15 miles and encamped at Yung-Li-Ching, meeting with no opposition. They advanced to Mao-Chang on Monday.

MONUMENT TO FOSTER.

Tribute to the Memory of the Great Composer, Unveiled at Pittsburg. Schoolchildren Sang Songs.

Pittsburg, Sept. 13.—A monument to Stephen C. Foster, the great song composer, erected through subscriptions, raised through the instrumentality of the Pittsburg Press, was unveiled at Highland park, in the presence of thousands of people.

The following was the program carried out at the park:

"America," by Grand Chorus and Consolidated Bands, under direction of Victor Herbert.

"The Old Folks at Home".....

.....Chorus and Bands

"Old Black Joe".....Chorus and Bands

"Old Dog Tray".....Chorus and Bands

Unveiling, by Mrs. Marion Foster Welsh, of Chicago, Only Child of the Composer.

"Old Uncle Ned".....Chorus and Band

"Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground".....

.....Chorus and Bands

"My Old Kentucky Home".....

.....Chorus and Bands

"Grand American Fantasia".....Victor Herbert

About 3,000 school children from Pittsburg, Allegheny and McKeesport formed

PITTSBURG'S FOSTER MONUMENT, WITH PORTRAITS OF THE SCULPTOR AND PROJECTOR.

the chorus. The Economy band, Grand Army band, of Allegheny; Second Brigade band, American Military band, of Allegheny, and Pennsylvania State band, the whole under the directorship of Victor Herbert, played. A parade preceded the ceremonies.

The monument is of granite, with figures of bronze, the design being the conception of Giuseppe Moretti, of New York. It is 14 feet in height. The established cost is $14,000. The design represents the figure of Foster seated, in deep thought, and in the act of inditing a composition. A sheet of paper, a pencil and the whole attitude of the song writer suggest his devotion to the idea under consideration. Reclining at the feet of Foster is the figure of a negro in a happy rocking mood, symbolical of "Old Uncle Ned," one of the favorite characters of the song writer. "Old Uncle Ned" is picking his tune out on a banjo. Against the base of the upper half of the monument rests a lyre against a sweep of sculptured palms. On the granite base is a shield with the simple inscription of the name of the composer, "Stephen C. Foster," with the date of birth as "July 4, 1826," and the date of death, "January 13, 1864." Later a line is to be inscribed selected from one of the Foster melodies and possibly a further expression relating to the testimonial of appreciation by his admirers. The remains of Stephen C. Foster are interred in the family burial lot in the Allegheny cemetery nearby to the graves of his parents, to whom he always fondly turned for the affection and ways fondly turned for the affection and adoration of his "Old Folks at Home." His grave is marked by a simple slab of white marble, embellished only by name and date.

A man's first vote for president of the United States ought to be a right vote. It ought to be for public and private prosperity, for public honor, for an 100-cent dollar, for support of our soldiers and sailors in their sacrifices, for the upholding of the American flag, and the supremacy of national authority. It ought not but for McKinley menas and every Bryan ballot is opposed

JOSEPH H. OUTHWAITE.

Joseph H. Outhwaite of Columbus was born in Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 5, 1841, and was educated in the public schools of Zanesville, and taught for two years in the high school of that city, and for three years subsequently was principal of the grammar school in Columbus. He was admitted to the bar in 1866, and practiced law at Osceola, Missouri, from 1867 to 1871, when he returned to Columbus, and became a leading attorney. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Franklin county in 1874, and re-elected in 1876, and held many local offices of trust in later years.

In 1884 he was elected as a Democrat on the tariff reform issue to the Forty-ninth congress from the Thirteenth district, Franklin, Fairfield, Hocking and Pickaway counties, and was re-elected in 1886 from the Thirteenth district, then composed of Franklin, Fairfield, Hocking and Perry; elected from the same district in 1888 to the Fifty-first, and was elected to the Fifty-second in 1890 from the Ninth district, Franklin, Madison and Pickaway, and was elected a fifth time in 1892 from the Twelfth district, Franklin and Fairfield. He played a conspicuous part in congress during the ten years of his service.

He was appointed on the board of ordnance and fortifications by President Cleveland, and still retains that position. In 1896 he disagreed with the leaders of his party on the money question, and supported John M. Palmer for the presidency on the single gold standard platform.

JACOB ROMEIS.

Jacob Romeis of Toledo was born in Weisenbach, Kingdom of Bavaria, Germany, Dec. 1, 1835. He attended the village schools until April, 1847, when he migrated with his parents to the United States, and attended the public schools in Buffalo, New York, until 1850. He removed from Buffalo to Toledo, and in 1856 engaged in railroad and shipping business. He was elected to the board of alderman of Toledo in 1874 and 1876, and was president of the board in 1877. In 1879 he was elected mayor of the city and re-elected in 1881, and again in 1883.

He was elected, as a Republican, to the Forty-ninth congress in 1884 from the Tenth district, Lucas, Erie, Ottawa and Sandusky counties, and re-elected to the Fiftieth from the Tenth district in 1886, composed of the counties of Lucas, Erie, Ottawa and Sandusky.

ELIHU S. WILLIAMS.

Captain Elihu S. Williams of Troy was born in Bethel township, Clark county, Ohio, Jan. 24, 1835. He attended the common schools and Antioch college; read law in Dayton and was admitted to the bar. He enlisted as a private soldier in the Seventy-first Ohio volunteer infantry; commissioned first lieutenant Feb. 14, 1862; promoted to captain Feb. 10, 1863, and assigned to the command of the military post at Carthage, Tennessee, where he remained until the close of the war.

He was attorney general of the Sixth judicial district of Tennessee from April, 1865, to 1867. In the latter years he was elected a member of the Tennessee house of representatives and served one term. He removed to Troy, Ohio, in January, 1875, and entered upon the practice of law, and afterward became interested in a newspaper.

He was elected to the Fiftieth congress, as a Republican, in 1886, from the Third district, Miami, Montgomery and Preble counties, and was re-elected to the Fifty-first in 1888, from the same district. At the end of his congressional terms he resumed the practice of his profession at Troy, where he is still one the most active and prominent citizens of the city.

CHARLES H. GROSVENOR.

General Charles Henry Grosvenor of Athens was born in Pomfret, Windham county, Connecticut, Sept. 23, 1833, of distinguished Revolutionary stock, his grandfather, Francis Grosvenor, having commanded the Second Connecticut regiment. His father, Peter Grosvenor, was major of the Tenth Connecticut in the war of 1812.

In 1838 he came with his father to Athens county, Ohio. School facilities were limited, and young Grosvenor was compelled to pick up an education as opportunities offered in the sparsely settled neighborhood. He managed, however, to secure a fair education, and in 1857 was admitted to the bar, and became one of the most successful lawyers in Southern Ohio.

He entered the military in July, 1861, and was mustered out in November, 1865. He was major, Lieutenant-colonel, colonel and brevet brigadier general and commanded a brigade at the battle of Nashville.

He served as a member of the Ohio House of Representatives from 1874 to 1878, and was speaker of the house of representatives during his second term. He has always been a Republican of the aggressive type. He was chosen presidential elector in 1872 and 1880, and was for many years a trustee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home at Xenia, Ohio.

He was elected to the Forty-ninth congress in 1884 from the Fourteenth district, Athens, Gallia, Meigs, Morgan and Perry counties; to the Fiftieth, in 1886, from the Fifteenth district, Athens, Meigs, Morgan, Washington and Monroe; to the Fifty-first, in 1888, from the same district; failed of a nomination, because of redistricting, in 1890, and was elected to the Fifty-third, in 1892, from the Eleventh district, consisting of Athens, Meigs, Vinson, Ross, Hocking and Perry counties, and from the same district to the Fifty-fourth, in 1894; the Fifty-fifth, in 1896, and the Fifty-sixth, in 1898. During the last 10 years of the century he was one of the most influential Republican leaders from the middle states on the floor of the house.

ISAAC H. TAYLOR.

Isaac Hamilton Taylor of Carrollton was born near New Harrisburg, Carroll county, Ohio, April 18, 1840, and was educated in the public and academic schools, studied law and was admitted to the bar, and was clerk of the court of Carroll county from January, 1870, to February, 1877.

He was elected to the Forty-ninth congress, as a Republican, in 1884, from the Eighteenth district, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson and Mahoning counties, and served one term. In 1891 he was elected a judge of the court of common pleas for the Ninth judicial district, was re-elected in 1896, and holds that position in 1899, his second term extending to 1901.

BRYAN ANSWERED.

HIS QUESTIONS AT LAPORTE, IND., FULLY COVERED.

The Humbug of His Attitude as to the Philippines Fully Shown Up by the Parallel in North Carolina and Louisiana With Colored Voters.

Mr. Bryan made a speech at Laporte, Ind., on September 1. He had but one minute, and he employed it in suggesting two questions to those who defend the natural expansion of the country and the retention of the Philippines. Said he: "Ask them whether the Filipino is to be a citizen or a subject. If he is to be a citizen, he must share with us in the destinies of this nation. If he is to be a subject, we must change our form of government."

Mr. Bryan's question can be returned to himself for an answer. Are the negroes, disfranchised by the "grandfather clause" in the constitutions of Louisiana or North Carolina, citizens or subjects? They cannot be citizens, because they are not allowed the right to vote. If Mr. Bryan's dilemma is true, then they are subjects. Therefore, according to Mr. Bryan's own words, we must change our form of government.

We wish to ask Mr. Bryan whether imperialism, as we see it exemplified in North Carolina and Louisiana, is not exactly the same as that to which he objects in the Philippines? Is our policy in the Philippines fraught with any more danger to our form of government than the policy which the Democratic party is carrying into effect in the southern states? Is the disfranchisement of the negroes of the south any less a violation of that precept of the Declaration of Independence, which declares, "All governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed," than is the government we are setting up in the Philippines today?

been constitutionally disfranchised, he is still a citizen, or whether he is a subject?

In point of fact, no such dilemma exists in the Philippines as Mr. Bryan sets forth. In every town or city in the islands where the insurrection has been subdued, the Filipinos enjoy full self-government. They have elected their own presidents and other inferior officers. They have the full right of suffrage for their own government. Their own elected officers disburse the money for that locality. As much can not be said for the negroes of the south. They have no vote at all—not even for county or township officials. Mr. Bryan is simply holding up a bugaboo to frighten voters. There is no more in it than there was in the same cry in 1863 and '64 against Lincoln—a man whom Mr. Bryan now lauds.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

They Show Clearly the General Prosperity of the Nation.

One of the clearest gauges as to the general prosperity of the country, has always been in the earnings of the railroads, particularly when the reports covered the entire country. In the first half of 1899, 172 roads reported net earnings of $155,750,000, and the first half of the present year the net earnings amount to about $187,000,000. This comparison is still stronger when made and extended back five years. The gain in both gross and net earnings for five years makes a remarkable exhibit. In the first half of 1895 the gross earnings of 177 roads were $381,778,000. For the first half of 1900 the earnings of the 177 roads, although not exactly the same roads, were $611,250,000, an increase of $229,475,000. The net earnings of the same roads in 1895 were $109,800,000, and in 1900 $186,998,000, an increase of $77,198,000. Most of the roads included in this last were able to earn fixed charges and some of them dividends on their stocks in 1895.

THE LATEST.

Is That Another Effort is Being Made to Consolidate the Pottery Interests.

It is reported that President Aarons, of the Laughlin No. 2 plant, is just now engaged in an attempt to consolidate the pottery interests of the city. Inquiry was made at several of the local plants, but the report could not be verified. However, it is admitted that the project could be carried out, provided the younger manufacturers of the city could be persuaded to go into the deal.

The old time potters, those who have been in the business since its inception, seem favorably impressed with the idea, and would not hesitate to go into the combination.

Her Timely Gift.

In common with other women, Mrs. Brown delights in a bargain, and when she observed the advertisement of a great fire and water sale in one of the department stores she repaired there without delay. There were many fine works of science, travel, history, religion and fiction to be had for a song each, but her eyes rested on a handsomely bound copy of "The Life of General Grant," and she bought it for her brother. Of course, it would not be fair to tell what she paid for it.

"The next day her brother came over to thank her. 'It's fine,' he said. 'I haven't got very far in it yet, but I know it's going to be good. When little Jane gets along a little further in her German I'm going to have her read me a bit of it every evening. I make rather slow progress of it myself.'"

"In German?" gasped the giver. "Yes," said the brother, "it's written in German, a mighty handy thing to have around the house." Since then Mrs. Brown has never bought a fire or water book without looking carefully on the inside of it.—Worcester (Mass.) Gazette.

What He Wanted For.

An inspector of Irish schools tells a good story, says the Newcastle (England) Chronicle. At a school where he made a surprise visit a little boy happened to come in for the first time and stepped up to the inspector at once.

"Sit there for the present," said the inspector, indicating the desired spot.

The boy obeyed readily, and when the inspector had finished his multitudinous inquiries into the knowledge of geography, grammar and arithmetic possessed by the children he found that the boy still sat in the same spot.
